The Literary Vision of Gabrielle Roy Paula Gilbert Lewis, 1984      The New Land Richard Chadbourne, Harvard Dahlie, 2006-01-01 The essays in this volume were originally presented at a workshop held at the University of Calgary on August 15 1977 and sponsored by the Calgary Institute for the Humanities The phrase the new land underwent careful scrutiny and reassessment during the course of the conference and the insights that resulted from the readings and discussions were of considerable value to participants and observers alike Chronologically and thematically the essays cover a wide range from La Nouvelle France as seen by the early missionaries and by the French Romantic writer Chateaubriand to variations on the new land theme in present day Qu bec from the Prairies as seen by an early homesteader novelist from France Constantin Weyer to the Manitoba of Gabrielle Roy which in turn is contrasted to the Nebraska of Willa Cather from a historical recreation of the Saskatchewan landscape and history by a gifted contemporary novelist Rudy Wiebe to a paradisaical celebration of British Columbia reflected in the later works of Malcolm Lowry What emerged from all of this among other things was the articulation of a mythology about the new land that was far more complex and expansive than the one derived originally through an old world perspective      Arts & Humanities Citation Index , 1998      Landscapes and Landmarks of Canada Maeve Conrick, Munroe Eagles, Jane Koustas, Caitríona Ní Chasaide, 2017-03-28 The image of the land is an ongoing trope in conceptions of Canada from the national anthem and the flag to the symbols on coins the land and nature remain linked to the Canadian sense of belonging and to the image of the nation abroad Linguistic landscapes reflect the multifaceted identities and cultural richness of the nations Earlier portrayals of the land focused on unspoiled landscape depicted in the paintings of the Group of Seven for example Contemporary notions of identity belonging and citizenship are established contested and legitimized within sites and institutions of public culture heritage and representation that reflect integration with the land transforming landscape into landmarks The Highway of Heroes originating at Canadian Forces Base Trenton in Ontario and Grosse Ile and the Irish Memorial National Historic Site in Qu bec are examples of landmarks that transform landscape into a built environment that endeavours to respect the land while using it as a site to commemorate celebrate and promote Canadian identity Similarly in literature and the arts the creation of the built environment and the interaction among those who share it is a recurrent theme This collection includes essays by Canadian and international scholars whose engagement with the theme stems from their disciplinary perspectives as well as from their personal and professional experience rooted at least partially in their own sense of national identity and in their relationship to Canada
