Rowan's Rule Rupert Shortt, 2009-02-24 A fascinating fair minded depiction of Archbishop Rowan Williams Rowan Williams is a complex and controversial figure Widely revered for his personal qualities he is also an intellectual giant who towers over almost all his predecessors as Archbishop of Canterbury Among other achievements he has trounced the atheist Richard Dawkins and published over twenty well regarded books including several volumes of poetry and a major study of Dostoevsky Yet he is also one of the most reviled church leaders in modern history Long before facing calls to step down after his lecture on sharia law in early 2008 he had been accused of heresy on account of his pro gay views He has disappointed many of his own supporters as well So how has high office changed Rowan Williams Has he been bullied and manipulated Or is he perhaps playing a long game obliged to rate church unity above the pursuit of his own vision at a time when the Anglican Communion has never looked more unstable Rupert Shortt already the author of an acclaimed introduction to the Archbishop's thought offers answers to these and other questions in this authoritative biography He explores how the events of the Archbishop's remarkable life have shaped his beliefs and practices today Of particular interest is the riveting account of Williams's experience near the World Trade Center towers on the morning of September 11 201 Written with Williams's cooperation Rowan's Rule not only elucidates his ideas but gives a compelling portrait of a private and in some ways surprisingly vulnerable man Hearings United States. crucial ideas she shows us how forests can not only heal us but save the planet When Diana Beresford Kroeger whose father was a member of the Anglo Irish aristocracy and whose mother was an O Donoghue one of the stronghold families who carried on the ancient Celtic traditions was orphaned as a child she could have been sent to the Magdalene Laundries Instead the O Donoghue elders most of them scholars and freehold farmers in the Lisheens valley in County Cork took her under their wing Diana became the last ward under the Brehon Law Over the course of three summers she was taught the ways of the Celtic triad of mind body and soul This included the philosophy of healing the laws of the trees Brehon wisdom and the Ogham alphabet all of it rooted in a vision of nature that saw trees and forests as fundamental to human survival and spirituality Already a precociously gifted scholar Diana found that her grounding in the ancient ways led her to fresh scientific concepts Out of that huge and holistic vision have come the observations that put her at the forefront of her field the discovery of mother trees at the heart of a forest the fact that trees are a living library have a chemical language and communicate in a quantum world the major idea that trees heal living creatures through the aerosols they release and that they carry a great wealth of natural antibiotics and other healing substances and perhaps most significantly that planting trees can actively regulate the atmosphere and the oceans and even stabilize our climate This book is not only the story of a remarkable scientist and her ideas it harvests all of her powerful knowledge about why trees matter and why trees are a viable achievable solution to climate change Diana eloquently shows us that if we can understand the intricate ways in which the health and welfare of every living creature is connected to the global forest and strengthen those connections we will still have time to mend the self destructive ways that are leading to drastic fires droughts and floods The Witching Hour

The Treadwell's Book of Plant Magic Christina Oakley Harrington, 2023. A handy guide to the traditional use of herbs and plants in magic and spell work. Plant magic is a perennially popular subject but in most books on the topic, readers must wade through eye remedies and cold cures to get to the actual magical powers attributed to the plants. In Treadwell's Book of Plant Magic, author Christina Oakley Harrington, founder of the renowned occult Treadwell's Books in London, focuses on the lore and learning of the art of plant magic. She has sifted through hundreds of traditional sources to create a rare compendium of the old ways in which plants have been used to achieve love, win competitions, become invisible, see fairies, gain good luck, achieve success, receive protection, and more. The book also offers practical updates to the old uses which the modern reader will find easy to carry out. The Problems and Needs section suggests the appropriate plant or plants for almost any circumstance one could face in life.

The Mirror of Parliament, 1839 The Mirror of Parliament for the ... Session of the ... Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland John Henry Barrow, 1839 Tales of the Irish Hedgerows Tony Locke, 2017-04-03. Traditional hedgerows are rapidly vanishing from our countryside. With their disappearance, we lose not only their flora and fauna but also the tales and folklore that have always surrounded them. This book records these stories before they disappear from memory. With chapters dedicated to specific plants or animals, we learn about the folklore of the hedgehog, the badger, woodmouse, thrush, wren, bumblebee, hawthorn, foxglove, and hazel, and many more. These are tales of wisdom and magic that help us to gain a greater understanding of the natural world we live in and which encourage us to live in closer harmony with that world.
