Roy De Maistre The English Years 1930-1968:

Roy de Maistre Heather Johnson, Heather Melrose Johnson, 1995 This text explores de Maistre's work in the context of the art produced in England from 1930-1968. It discusses the light shed on current concerns in art and theory and reproduces many of de Maistre's work. It is a sequel to the book Roy de Maistre The Australian Years 1894-1930 American Impressionism & Realism Helene Barbara Weinberg, Queensland Art Gallery, 2009. An exhibition publication featuring curatorial essays and works from the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York. Francis Bacon - In the Mirror of Photography Katharina Günther, 2022-05-09 The British painter Francis Bacon 1909-1992 is famed for his idiosyncratic mode of depicting the human figure. Thirty years after his death, his working methods remain underexplored. New research on the Francis Bacon Studio Archive at Hugh Lane Gallery Dublin sheds light on the genesis of his works, namely the photographic source material he collected in his studios on which he consistently based his paintings. The book brings together the artist's pictorial springboards for the first time, delineating and interpreting recurring patterns and methods in his preparatory work and adoption of photographic material. In addition, it correctly locates chance as a driving force in Bacon's working method and qualifies the significance of photography for the painter. German Photo Book Award 23-24 Gold in the category Text Volume Photo Theory. Francis Bacon Michael Peppiatt, 2019-03-13 This book, a biography on Francis Bacon, is inspired by the friendship the author had with Bacon and based on records of the conversations that took place since 1963. The book forms the first comprehensive account of the artist's life and his work.

"Australian Art and Artists in London, 1950-1965" Simon Pierse, 2017-07-05 Subtle and wide-ranging in its account, this study explores the impact of Australian art in Britain in the two decades following the end of World War II and preceding the Swinging Sixties. In a transitional period of decolonization in Britain, Australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art, and a group of Australian artists settled in London where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital's most prestigious galleries. The book traces the key influences of Sir Kenneth Clark, Bernard Smith and Bryan Robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons, ideologues and entrepreneurs for Australian art, as well as the self-definition and interaction of the artists themselves. Simon Pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative, including the mechanics of the British art world, the limited and frustrating cultural scene of 1950s Australia and the conservative influence of Australian government bodies. Publishing for the first time archival material, letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in Britain or Australia, this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate Australian artists living in London constructed a distinct vision of Australian identity for a foreign market.

The Power of Economic Ideas Alex Millmow, 2010-05-01 Economics Keynes once wrote can be a very dangerous science Sometimes though it can be moulded to further the common good though it might need a leap in mental outlook a whole new zeitgeist to be able to do so This book is about a transformation in Australian economists thought and ideas during the interwar period It focuses upon the interplay between economic ideas players and policy sometimes in the public arena In a decade marked by depression recovery and international political turbulence Australian economists moved from a classical orthodox economic position to that of a cautious Keynesianism by 1939 We look at how a small collective of economists tried to influence policy making in the nineteen thirties Economists felt obliged to seek changes to the parameters as economic conditions altered but more importantly as their insights about economic management changed There are three related themes that underscore this book Firstly the professionalisation of Australian economics took a gigantic leap in this period aided in part by the adverse circumstances confronting the economy but also by the aspirations economists held for their discipline A second theme relates to the rather unflattering reputation foisted upon interwar economists after 1945 That transition underlies a third theme of this book namely how Australian economists were emboldened by Keynes's General Theory to confidently push for greater management of economic activity By 1939 Australian economists conceptualized from a new theoretic framework and from one which they advanced comment and policy advice This book therefore will rehabilitate the works of Australian interwar economists arguing that they not only had an enviable international reputation but also facilitated the acceptance of Keynes's General Theory among policymakers before most of their counterparts elsewhere

After Francis Bacon Nicholas Chare, 2017-07-05 Like an analyst listening to a patient this study attends not just to what is said in David Sylvester's interviews with Francis Bacon but also crucially to what is left unsaid to revealing interruptions and caesuras Through interpreting these silences After Francis Bacon breaks with stereotypical ideas about the artist's work and provides new readings and avenues of research After Francis Bacon is the first book to give extended consideration to the way the reception of Bacon's art including Gilles Deleuze's influential text on the artist has been shaped by the Sylvester interviews and to move beyond the limiting effects of the interviews providing fresh interpretations Nicholas Chare draws upon recent developments in psychoanalysis and forensic psychology to present innovative readings of Bacon's work primarily based on the themes of sadomasochism and multi sensory perception Through bringing Bacon's paintings into dialogue with Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness and the film Alien he also provides original insights into the ethical relevance the artist's works have for today This study addresses the complexities of the artist's practice particularly in relation to sexuality and synaesthesia and additionally forms a crucial intervention within current debates about creative writing in art history

Lowering the Boom Jay Beck, Tony Grajeda, 2023-12-11 As the first collection of new work on sound and cinema in over a decade Lowering the Boom addresses the expanding field of film sound theory and its significance in rethinking historical models of film analysis The contributors consider the ways in which musical expression scoring voice over narration and ambient noise affect identity formation and subjectivity Lowering the Boom also analyzes how shifting modulation of the spoken word in cinema results in variations in audience interpretation Introducing new methods of thinking about the interaction of sound and music in films this volume also details avant garde film sound which is characterized by a distinct break from the narratively based sound practices of mainstream cinema This interdisciplinary global approach to the theory and history of film sound opens the eyes and ears of film scholars practitioners and students to film's true audio visual nature Contributors are Jay Beck John Belton Clark Farmer Paul Grainge Tony Grajeda David T Johnson Anahid Kassabian David Laderman James Lastra Arnt Maas Matthew Malsky Barry Mauer Robert Miklitsch Nancy Newman Melissa Ragona Petr Szczepanik Paul Thberge and Debra White Stanley

Tate British Artists Andrew Brighton, 2001 This volume book examines the way Irish born artist Francis Bacon's 1909 1992 paintings were made with reference to his life and words revealing the strong influence of literary modernism Bacon is often said to have put the pain in painting His subversion of artistic conventions and religious symbols created a sensation during his lifetime Even after his death his paintings of distorted figures and fractured spaces continue to ignite controversy To some Bacon's imagery is a profound interpretation of the tragic human condition others declare it violent and disgusting In particular Bacon's rhetoric draws from the despair and guilt expressed by Charles Baudelaire T S Eliot and Ezra Pound
