Law have been ultimately an expression of changes in the state system of the world and in the practice of the nations we have tried as it were to cut into the procession of history at fixed points to select some central theme at each stage and to treat it in the light of history and law In this attempt we arrived at a division of history from our point of view into three major periods which we have termed respectively those of the Prince of the Judge and of the Concert In the first period the scholar is still in the age of the dissolving Holy Roman Empire in the second commercial and dynastic wars above all the long drawn out struggle between France and England dominate the scene in the third and last it is the voice of some force other than that of pure nationalism which whatever the reason reasserts itself No division of this kind can be wholly satisfactory but it is our belief that under one or another of these headings almost every issue which has interest for the historian of the Law of Nations can be conveniently treated from the Preface by the author Records of Buckinghamshire
