Royal Australian Navy:

The Royal Australian Navy in World War II David Stevens, 2005 The definitive account of the part the Royal Australian Navy played in the Second World War Royal Australian Navy, 1939-1942 George Hermon Gill, 1957 This volume tells briefly the story of the Royal Australian Navy and of Australian naval policy between the wars and then records the part played by the ships and men of that Navy on every ocean and particularly in the eastern Mediterranean and Indian and Pacific Oceans from 1939 until the end of the first quarter of 1942 When the volume ends most of the surviving ships are on the Australia Station again and the Japanese fleets dominate half the Pacific Ocean and the seas to the north of Australia The author describes not only the actions of the Australian ships but the problems and policies of the British fleets of which they often formed a part and discusses the strategical and administrative questions encountered by the senior leaders in Australia Publisher's description A New Aircraft Carrier for the Royal Australian Navy? Gary Brown, Derek Woolner, 1982

The Royal Australian Navy David Stevens, 2001 No Pleasure Cruise T. R. Frame, 2004-07 In 1901 Australia's fledgling Federal Government assumed the responsibility for the new nation's defence Their first task was to take the aged and obsolete remnants of the colonies navies and create a national navy to defend our island's coastal waters and overseas trade routes For the first 40 years the Royal Australian Navy RAN was designed to serve alongside the Royal Navy and resembled it in everything but scale After the Second World War the RAN developed along US lines but despite these overseas ties the RAN has developed its own proud character and tradition and has entered the twenty first century as a confident and independent force in its own right In No Pleasure Cruise Australia's best known naval historian Dr Tom Frame charts the RAN's emergence as one of the world's strongest and most respected navies and its evolving relationship with the Australian public press and parliament Of Nautilus and Eagles Peter C. Firkins, 1983 Royal Australian Navy, 1987
