Women's Bodies Jane Arthurs, Jean Grimshaw, 1999-03-01 The articles in this volume consider the prevailing standards of feminine decorum and how these are being played with and challenged by various media This is a collection of essays which focuses on the representation of women s bodies in historical and contemporary cultures It discusses recent books on the subject and compares the two different approaches to the body adopted by the soft porn magazine For Women and the women's monthly Cosmopolitan. It also examines TV cult figures such as the comic body exemplified by comedienne Joe Brand and situation comedies such as Absolutely Fabulous. Shakespeare and the Spanish Comedia Bárbara Mujica, 2013-10-03 Shakespeare and the Spanish Comedia is a nearly unique transnational study of the theater performance traditions of early modern Spain and England. Divided into three parts, the book focuses first on translating for the stage, examining diverse approaches to the topic. It asks, for example, whether plays should be translated to sound as if they were originally written in the target language or if their foreignness should be maintained and even highlighted. Section II deals with interpretation and considers such issues as uses of polyphony, the relationship between painting and theater, and representations of women. Section III highlights performance issues such as music in modern performances of classical theater and the construction of stage character. Written by a highly respected group of British and American scholars and theater practitioners, this book challenges the traditional divide between the academy and stage practitioners and between one theatrical culture and another. Playwriting Women Cynthia Zimmerman, 1994-09 The Canadian Dramatist Volume 3. The six playwrights discussed in this volume are Carol Bolt, Erica Ritter, Sharon Pollack, Margaret Hollingsworth, Anne Chislett, and Judith Thompson. World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Don Rubin, Carlos Solorzano, 2013-10-08 This new paperback edition of World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre covers the Americas from Canada to Argentina, including the United States. Entries on twenty-six countries are preceded by specialist introductions on Theatre in Post-Colonial Latin America, Theatres of North America, Puppet Theatre, Theatre for Young Audiences, Music Theatre, and Dance Theatre. The essays follow the series format, allowing for cross-referring across subjects both within the volume and between volumes. Each country entry is written by specialists in the particular country, and the volume has its own teams of regional editors overseen by the main editorial team based at the University of York in Canada, headed by Don Rubin. Each entry covers all aspects of theatre: genres, practitioners, writers, critics, and styles, with bibliographies, over 200 black and white photographs, and a substantial index. This Encyclopedia is indispensable for anyone interested in the cultures of the Americas or in modern theatre. It is also an invaluable reference tool for students and scholars of a wide range of disciplines, including history, performance studies, anthropology, and cultural studies. The Billboard, 1926 New York Magazine, 1984-01-16 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. Wanton Eyes and Chaste Desires Sheila T. Cavanagh, 1994-09-22 A very readable, lucid, intriguing study. Spenser Newsletter: a very thoroughgoing inventory of the cruel male fantasies and nightmares imposed on female gendered figures. Studies in English Literature 1500-1900. Cavanagh has managed to give an almost entirely new reading of The Faerie Queene; it is the first feminist rereading of the entire epic and it reshapes the contours of the huge poem in often startling and remarkable ways Maureen Quilligan University of Pennsylvania      World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Volume 4: The Arab World Don Rubin (Series Editor),2003-09-02 One of the first internationally published overviews of theatrical activity across the Arab World Includes 160 000 words and over 125 photographs from 22 different Arab countries from Africa to the Middle East      Kingdom of Snow Raymond Van Dam,2002-09-27 Kingdom of Snow investigates the impact of Roman rule in Cappadocia and the fate of classical Greek culture in an increasingly Christian society      Shot/Countershot Lucy Fischer,2014-07-14 Do films made by women comprise a counter cinema radically different from the dominant tradition Feminist film critics contend that women filmmakers do present from a distinctive vision or countershot and Lucy Fischer argues persuasively for this view In rich detail this book relates the idea of a counter cinema to theories of intertextuality and locates it in the broad context of recent feminist film literary and art criticism Fischer also employs an original critical model of the dialogue between women s cinema and film tradition in the very organization of the book Each chapter discusses a theme or genre such as the musical the double the myth of womanhood and the figure of the actress counterposing two or more works from the feminist and from the dominant cinema What emerges is a fascinating picture of a women s film tradition that not only addresses but reworks and remakes the mainstream cinema Fischer successfully combines two main strains of feminist criticism the deconstructive critique of the dominant culture from a feminist standpoint and the study of a feminist counterculture Examining films from Persona and The Lady from Shanghai to Girlfriends and Sisters or the Balance of Happiness the book offers fresh interpretations of individual works and can incidentally serve as an introduction to the field of feminist film criticism Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press

Rethinking Obligation Nancy J Hirschmann provides an innovative analysis of liberal obligation theory that uses feminism as a theoretical method for rethinking political obligations from the bottom up In articulating a feminist method for political theory Hirschmann skillfully brings together theoretical categories and methods previously seen as opposed feminist standpoint and postmodernism gender psychology and anti essentialism empiricism and interpretivism Rethinking Obligation mounts a vital challenge to central aspects of liberal theory Students and scholars of political philosophy political theory feminist theory and women s studies will want to read it

Whiteness Interrupted Marcus Bell, 2021-06-28 In Whiteness Interrupted Marcus Bell presents a revealing portrait of white teachers in majority black schools in which he examines the limitations of understandings of how white racial identity is formed Through in depth interviews with dozens of white teachers from a racially segregated urban school district in Upstate New York Bell outlines how whiteness is constructed based on localized interactions and takes a different form in predominantly black spaces He finds that in response to racial stress in a difficult teaching environment white teachers conceptualized whiteness as a stigmatized category predicated on white victimization When discussing race outside majority black spaces Bell s subjects characterized American society as postracial in which race seldom affects outcomes Conversely in discussing their experiences within predominantly black spaces they rejected the idea of white privilege often angrily and instead focused on what they saw as the racial privilege of blackness Throughout Bell underscores the significance of white victimization narratives in black spaces and their repercussions as the United States becomes a majority minority society

Dramatic Mirror of Motion Pictures and the Stage, 1917 Locating Gender in Modernism Geetha Ramanathan, 2012-10-02 This book visits modernism within a comparative gendered and third world framework questioning current scholarly categorisations of modernism and reframing our conception of what constitutes modernist aesthetics It describes the construction of modernist studies and argues that despite a range of interventions which suggest that philosophical and material articulations with the third world shaped modernism an emphasis on modernist universals persists Ramanathan argues that women and third world authors have reshaped received notions of the modern and revised orthodox ideas on the modern aesthetic Authors such as Bessie Head Josiane Racine T Obinkaram Echewa Raja Rao Gabriel Garcia Marquez Sembene Ousmane Salman Rushdie Ana Castillo Attia Hossain Bapsi Sidhwa and Sahar Khalifeh are visited in their specific cultural contexts and use some form of realism a mode that western modernism relegates to the nineteenth century A comparative methodology and extensive research on intersecting topics such as post coloniality and the articulation between gender and modernist aesthetics facilitates readings of the modern in twentieth century literature that fall outside standards of western modernism Considering the relationship between aesthetics and ideology Ramanathan lays out a critical apparatus to enhance our understanding of the modern thus suggesting that form is not universal but that the history of forms like the history of colonialism and of women indicates very specific modalities of the modern
