Spirits of the Place John Clifford Holt, 2009-07-29 Spirits of the Place is a rare and timely contribution to our understanding of religious culture in Laos and Southeast Asia Most often studied as a part of Thai Vietnamese or Khmer history Laos remains a terra incognita to most Westerners and to many of the people living throughout Asia as well John Holt s new book brings this fascinating nation into focus With its overview of Lao Buddhism and analysis of how shifting political power from royalty to democracy to communism has impacted Lao religious culture the book offers an integrated account of the entwined political and religious history of Laos from the fourteenth century to the contemporary era Holt advances the provocative argument that common Lao knowledge of important aspects of Theravada Buddhist thought and practice has been heavily conditioned by an indigenous religious culture dominated by the veneration of phi spirits whose powers are thought to prevail over and within specific social and geographical domains The enduring influence of traditional spirit cults in Lao culture and society has brought about major changes in how the figure of the Buddha and the powers associated with Buddhist temples and reliquaries indeed how all ritual spaces and times have been understood by the Lao Despite vigorous attempts by Buddhist royalty French rationalists and most recently by communist ideologues to eliminate the worship of phi spirit cults have not been displaced they continue to persist and show no signs of abating Not only have the spirits resisted eradication but they have withstood synthesis subordination and transformation by Buddhist political and ecclesiastical powers Rather than reduce Buddhist religious culture to a set of simple commonalities Holt takes a comparative approach using his nearly thirty years experience with Sri Lanka to elucidate what is unique about Lao Buddhism This stimulating book invites students in the fields of the history of religion and Buddhist and Southeast Asian studies to take a fresh look at prevailing assumptions and perhaps reconsider the place of Buddhism in Laos and Southeast Asia

Becoming the Buddha Donald K. Swearer, 2020-07-21 Becoming the Buddha is the first book length study of a key ritual of Buddhist practice in Asia the consecration of a Buddha image or new Buddha a ceremony by which the Buddha becomes present or alive Through a richly detailed accessible exploration of this ritual in northern Thailand an exploration that stands apart from standard text based or anthropological approaches Donald Swearer makes a major contribution to our understanding of the Buddha image its role in Buddhist devotional life and its relationship to the veneration of Buddha relics Blending ethnography analysis and Buddhist texts related to this mimetic reenactment of the night of the Buddha s enlightenment he demonstrates that the image becomes the Buddha s surrogate by being invested with the Buddha s story and charged with the extraordinary power of Buddhahood The process by which this transformation occurs through chant sermon meditation and the presence of charismatic monks is at the heart of this book Known as opening the eyes of the Buddha image consecration traditions throughout Buddhist Asia share much in common Within the cultural context of northern Thailand Becoming the Buddha illuminates scriptural accounts of the making of the first Buddha image looks at debates over the ritual's historical origin at Buddhological insights achieved and at the hermeneutics of absence and presence and provides a thematic comparison of several Buddhist traditions

The Lives of Chinese Objects Louise Tythacott,2011-06-01 This is the biography of a set of rare Buddhist statues from China Their extraordinary adventures take them from the Buddhist temples of fifteenth century Putuo China's most important pilgrimage island to their seizure by a British soldier in the First Opium War in the early 1840s and on to a starring role in the Great Exhibition of 1851 In the 1850s they moved in and out of dealers and antiquarian collections arriving in 1867 at Liverpool Museum Here they were re conceptualized as specimens of the Mongolian race and later as examples of Oriental art The statues escaped the bombing of the Museum during the Second World War and lived out their existence for the next sixty years dismembered corroding and neglected in the stores their histories lost and origins unknown As the curator of Asian collections at Liverpool Museum the author became fascinated by these bronzes and selected them for display in the Buddhism section of the World Cultures gallery In 2005 quite by chance the discovery of a lithograph of the figures on prominent display in the Great Exhibition enabled the remarkable lives of these statues to be reconstructed

Meeting God ,1999-01-01 Huyler provides an introduction to the scope of Hindu beliefs and practices accompanied by his arresting photographs documenting the spirituality of common men and women in India 200 color illustrations

The Eucharist and Human Liberation Tissa Balasuriya,2004-08-09 The Eucharist is at the heart of individual Christian devotion and at the center of every Christian community Tissa Balasuriya challenges us to see the relation between the spiritual Bread of Life and the staff of life food for the physically hungry who make up one third of the world This is disturbing but dynamic reading for all who gather at the Table of the Lord's Supper experience in India they portray the capitalists and bureaucrats who control the cellular infrastructure and wrestle over bandwidth rights the marketers and technicians who bring mobile phones to the masses and the often poor village bound users who adapt these addictive and sometimes troublesome devices to their daily lives Examining the challenges cell phones pose to a hierarchy bound country the authors argue that in India where caste and gender restrictions have defined power for generations the disruptive potential of mobile phones is even greater than elsewhere The Great Indian Phone Book is a rigorously researched multidimensional tale of what can happen when a powerful and readily available technology is placed in the hands of a large still predominantly poor population Missionary Tropics Ines G. Županov, 2005 A provocative contribution to the history of early modern Euro Asian interactions that provides new perspectives on the encounter between Catholicism and Hinduism in India Craft Arts International , 1994 Counterheritage Denis Byrne, 2014-04-16 The claim that heritage practice in Asia is Eurocentric may be well founded but the view that local people in Asia need to be educated by heritage practitioners and governments to properly conserve their heritage distracts from the responsibility of educating oneself about the local popular beliefs and practices which constitute the bedrock of most people's engagement with the material past Written by an archaeologist who has long had one foot in the field of heritage practice and another in the academic camp of archaeology and heritage studies Counterheritage is at once a forthright critique of current heritage practice in the Asian arena and a contribution to this project of self education Popular religion in Asia including popular Buddhism and Islam folk Catholicism and Chinese deity cults has a constituency that accounts for a majority of Asia's population making its exclusion from heritage processes an issue of social justice but more pragmatically it explains why many heritage conservation programs fail to gain local traction This book describes how the tenets of popular religion affect building and renovation practices and describes how modernist attempts to suppress popular religion in Asia in the early and mid twentieth century impacted religious heritage Author Denis Byrne argues that the campaign by archaeologists and heritage professionals against the private collecting and looting of antiquities in Asia largely ignores the regimes of value which heritage discourse has helped erect and into which collectors and local diggers play Focussing on the Philippines Thailand and Taiwan but also referencing China and other parts of Southeast Asia richly detailed portraits are provided of the way people live with old things and are affected by them Narratives of the author's fieldwork are woven into arguments built upon an extensive and penetrating reading of the historical and anthropological literature The critical stance embodied in the title counterheritage is balanced by the optimism of the book's vision of a different practice of heritage advocating a view of heritage objects as vibrant agentic things enfolded in social practice rather than as inert and passive surfaces subject to conservation
