Sonnets Walking the Great Divide Cecil Welles,2017-02-13 This book represents a sample of the authors thought clarification Somber crazy joyful or eclectic in subjects the sonnet format provides a steady bedrock of expression Some subjects are deep some barely scratch the surface some try to resolve a conundrum and some are a passing whim All start with a single word or phrase with no end state in mind until the poem is done Michigan Quarterly Review ,2008 The Sonnet Stephen Regan,2019-02-28 The Sonnet provides a comprehensive study of one of the oldest and most popular forms of poetry widely used by Shakespeare Milton and Wordsworth and still used centuries later by poets such as Seamus Heaney Tony Harrison and Carol Ann Duffy This book traces the development of the sonnet from its origins in medieval Italy to its widespread acceptance in modern Britain Ireland and America It shows how the sonnet emerges from the aristocratic courtly centres of Renaissance Europe and gradually becomes the chosen form of radical political poets such as Milton The book draws on detailed critical analysis of some of the best known sonnets written in English to explain how the sonnet functions as a poetic form and it argues that the flexibility and versatility of the sonnet have given it a special place in literary history and tradition Measure ,2006 , Short Stories from the Jazz Age - The Best of F. Elisabeth Reichel, 2021-08 Writing Anthropologists Sounding Primitives re examines the poetry and scholarship of three of the foremost figures in the twentieth century history of U S American anthropology Edward Sapir Margaret Mead and Ruth Benedict While they are widely renowned for their contributions to Franz Boas s early twentieth century school of cultural relativism what is far less known is their shared interest in probing the representational potential of different media and forms of writing This dimension of their work is manifest in Sapir s critical writing on music and literature and Mead s groundbreaking work with photography and film Sapir Mead and Benedict together also wrote more than one thousand poems which in turn negotiate their own media status and rivalry with other forms of representation A Elisabeth Reichel presents the first sustained study of the published and unpublished poetry of Sapir Mead and Benedict charting this largely unexplored body of work and relevant selections of the writers scholarship In addition to its expansion of early twentieth century literary canons Writing Anthropologists Sounding Primitives contributes to current debates about the relations between different media sign systems and modes of sense perception in literature and other media Reichel offers a unique contribution to the history of anthropology by synthesizing and applying insights from the history of writing sound studies and intermediality studies to poetry and scholarship produced by noted early twentieth century U S American cultural anthropologists Access the OA edition here
