Revelation, Scripture and Church Richard R. Topping,2016-04-08 How does God s involvement with the generation of Holy Scripture and its use in the life of the Christian church figure into the human work of Scripture interpretation This is the central question that this book seeks to address In critical conversation with the influential hermeneutic programs of James Barr Paul Ricoeur and Hans Frei Topping demonstrates how God's agency has been marginalized in the task of Scripture interpretation Divine involvement with the Bible is bracketed out Barr rendered in generic terms Ricoeur or left implicit Frei in these depictions of the hermeneutic field The result is that each of these hermeneutic programs is less than a realist interpretative proposal Talk of God is eclipsed by the terminal consideration of human realities Topping argues for the centrality of doctrinal description in a lively theological understanding of Scripture interpretation for the life of the church
