Culleton,2016-07-22 Bringing together works by Salvador Espriu Juan Goytisolo Merc Rodoreda Esther Tusquets and Juan Marsa that portray memory as a disorienting narrative enterprise Colleen Culleton argues that the source of this disorientation is the material reality of life in Barcelona in the immediate post Civil War years Barcelona was the object of harsh persecution in the first years of the Franco regime that included the erasure of marks of Catalan identity and cultural history from the urban landscape and made Barcelona a moving target for memory The literature and film she examines show characters struggling to produce narratives of the remembered past that immediately conflict with the dominant version of Spain's historical narrative formulated to legitimize the Civil War Culleton suggests the trope of the laberinto used as an image or device in all five of the works she considers and translated into English as both maze and labyrinth opens up a space that enables readers to take vulnerability to outside interference into account as an inseparable part of remembrance While the narratives all have maze like qualities involving a high level of reader participation and choice the exigencies of the labyrinth with its unicursal demands for patience perseverance and faith always prevail Thus do the Francoist narrative and social structure in the end resurface and reassert themselves over the narrating character s perspective

Assertive Biblical Women William Phipps,1992-08-24 Most of the women described in this study were atypical biblical women Israelite women like women in most cultures of the world had status principally within the home However exceptional women occasionally had prominent roles outside the home and dared to assert themselves The chapters contain biographical sketches with comparisons to contemporary women s roles of two dozen women Beginning with Sarah of Ur and ending with Priscilla of Rome their lives range over an era of nearly two millennia These women were at crucial times sagacious in decision making and skillful in executing their decisions They made such a distinctive mark on the events of their time to be remembered by subsequent generations as more than breeders of male heirs Each woman s story relates how a dynamic woman was able to swim against the strong currents of patriarchy To make explicit the relevancy of this study the brief biographies are related to such current feminist issues as surrogate parenting gender stereotyping and civil disobedience over unequal treatment by governments
