On the Sea of Memory Jonathan Cott, 2005      Recovering Memory Hedda Friberg, Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Lene Yding Pedersen, 2009-03-26 Various ways of collecting storing and recovering memories have been the focus of the most recent joint research project carried out by a group of Irish Studies scholars all based in the Nordic countries and members of the Nordic Irish Studies Network NISN The result of the project Recovering Memory Irish Representations of Past and Present is a collection of essays which examines the theme of memory in Irish literature and culture against the theoretical background of the philosophical discourse of modernity Offering a wide range of perspectives this volume examines a plurality of representations past and present of memory both public and private and the intersection between collective memory and individual in modern Ireland Also explored is the relation between memory and identity national and private as well as questions of subjectivity and the construction of the self Given Ireland's tragic past and its long history of colonisation it is inevitable that various aspects of memory in terms of nationality post colonialism and politics also have bearing on this study The volume is divided into five sections each of which examines one broadly defined aspect of memory The introductory section focuses on memory and history and is followed by sections on memory and autobiography place identity and memory in the work of novelist John Banville Within each section the individual writers engage in a fruitful dialogue with each other and with the approaches of such theorists as Arendt Husserl Merleau Ponty Ricoeur and Baudrillard      Sea Of Memory Erri De Luca, 1999-05 Memories of a father killed in World War II come to the surface in this dramatic short novel set in the early 1950s on a small island near Capri      Regions of Memory Simon Lewis, Jeffrey Olick, Joanna Wawrzyniak, Malgorzata Pakier, 2022-08-17 Regions of memory are a scale of social and cultural memory that reaches above the national yet remains narrower than the global or universal The chapters of this volume analyze transnational constellations of memory across and between several geographical areas exploring historical political and cultural interactions between societies Such a perspective enables a more diverse field of possible comparisons in memory studies studying a variety of global memory regions in parallel Moreover it reveals lesser known vectors and mechanisms of memory travel such as across Cold War battle lines across the Indian Ocean or between Southeast Asia and western Europe Chapters 1 and 6 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com      The Sea Commands Paulo Mendes, 2020-12-09 Azenha do Mar is a fishing community on the southwest coast of Portugal It came into existence around forty years ago as an outcome of the abandonment of work in the fields and of propitious ecological conditions This book looks at the migration processes since the founding of the community and how they relate to the social inequalities for property and labour which prevail today The book also reflects upon the personal experience of the ethnographer in the field balancing the importance of methodology on the one hand and fieldwork as a research process on the other      The Sea in the Literary Imagination Ekaterina V.
