Westminster Review, 1841 Assessment of Species Diversity in the Atlantic Maritime Ecozone Donald F. McAlpine, Ian M. Smith, 2010 Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone Camille Goodman, 2021-11-15 Under the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea coastal States have sovereign rights to explore, exploit, conserve and manage the living resources of the 200 nautical mile exclusive economic zone (EEZ). However, 40 years after the adoption of the Convention, there is still a great deal of uncertainty about the nature and extent of these sovereign rights. Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone examines the ways in which coastal States can exercise authority on the basis of their sovereign rights over living resources in the EEZ. Dr. Camille Goodman explores the key concepts of fishing and fishing-related activities to establish what vessels and which activities can be regulated by coastal States, canvasses the criteria and conditions that coastal States can apply as part of regulating foreign access to their resources and considers the regulation of unlicensed foreign fishing vessels in transit through the EEZ. Goodman also examines how such regulations can be enforced within the EEZ and the circumstances under which enforcement can take place beyond the EEZ following hot pursuit. A review and analysis of the practice of 145 States identifies the contemporary extent of coastal State jurisdiction over living resources in the EEZ and offers a unique fresh perspective on the underlying and enduring nature of that jurisdiction. Underpinned by a rigorous examination of the Convention jurisprudence and literature as well as being supported by carefully documented State practice, Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone proposes a more predictable framework within which to resolve jurisdictional challenges in the EEZ. First Statement on the Part of Great Britain, According to the Provisions of the Convention Concluded Between Great Britain and the United States, on the 29th September, 1827 Great Britain, 1829 Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Basin United States.
