Other Stories E.F Benson, 2020-07-27 Reproduction of the original The Countess of Lowndes Square and Other Stories by E F Benson      Recovering the Canon David Neal Miller, Isaac Bashevis Singer, 1986      The Supernatural and Fantastic in Short Detective Fiction Laird R. Blackwell, 2020-10-30 Although fantasy and supernatural literature have long and celebrated histories many critics contend that the fantastic and the supernatural have no place in the logical rational world of the detective story This book is the first extensive study of the fantastic in detective fiction and it explores the highly debated question of whether detective fiction and the fantastic can comfortably coexist The locked room mystery which often uses the fantastic as a red herring to eventually be debunked by reason and logic has long been among the most popular subgenres of detective fiction This book also explores stories featuring almost supernaturally gifted detectives stories where the supernatural is truly encountered and stories with ambiguous endings Close to 500 detective stories from 1841 to 2000 in which the fantastic or supernatural plays a central role are discussed and analyzed Although not all the stories are judged to be successful as detective tales in the great majority the fantastic enlivens the tale and deepens the mystery without weakening the detective elements      Best New Horror 3 Stephen Jones, Ramsey Campbell, 2013-10-10 Winner of the World Fantasy Award for Best Anthology and the British Fantasy award of the same category this anthology includes the best horror stories from 1991 Stories by Jonathan Carroll Thomas Ligotti Brian Lumley Karl Edward Wagner Garry Kilworth and Peter Straub are included      The Jewish Holocaust Marty Bloomberg, Buckley Barry Barrett, 1995-01-01 This expanded edition of the guide to major books in English on the Holocaust is organized into ten subject areas reference materials European antisemitism background materials the Holocaust years Jewish resistance      The Oxford Book of American Short Stories Joyce Carol Oates, 1992 This volume offers a survey of American short fiction in 59 tales that combine classic works with different unexpected gems which invite readers to explore a wealth of important pieces by women and minority writers Authors include Amy Tan Alice Adams David Leavitt and Tim O'Brien      Mr Campion's Séance Mike Ripley, 2020-06-01 The truth is stranger than fiction for Albert Campion in this gripping mystery where murder detective novels and the supernatural collide 1946 London The eagerly anticipated new detective novel from Albert Campion's godsibling bestselling author Evadne Child is proving to be another runaway success Unfortunately it has also caught the attention of Superintendent Stanislaus Oates for reasons that go beyond its superior plotting The crime at the heart of The Bottle Party Murder bears a number of striking similarities to a very real recent and unsolved murder at the Grafton Club in Soho Evadne wrote the book before the murder occurred yet predicts it remarkably accurately is it just a weird coincidence is Evadne getting her information from the other side or is something more sinister afoot The repercussions of this extraordinary and complex case will reach out over the next fifteen years drawing in three of Mr Campion's favourite policemen Oates Yeo and Luke before finally coming to its violent conclusion in 1962      Secrets from the Agatha Christie Archives Jared Cade, 2025-02-05 The untold story of how Agatha Christie conquered the serial market with her thrilling mysteries Dame

Agatha Christie reigns supreme as the Queen of Crime. Numerous books have been written about the legendary crime writer focusing on nearly every aspect of her craft. But until now no one has carried out an in depth investigation into how she conquered the serial market with her thrilling tales of murder and intrigue. In the UK and US Agatha Christie's work was serialized in the most prestigious magazines and newspapers of the day often under an array of different titles prior to being published by Collins and Dodd Mead and Company. Second serial rights could result in a single title being syndicated to over 40 newspapers. Over the decades numerous records have been lost or destroyed and keeping track of her literary legacy has proved a major challenge for her publishers literary agents and others until now. Jared Cade author of the ground breaking biography Agatha Christie and the Eleven Missing Days has unearthed a huge plethora of hitherto unknown facts about the timeline of her publishing history that will delight her devotees and enable future generations to write about her work with far greater authority and accuracy than ever before especially when correlating her publications to the parallels in her life. Illustrated with rare pictures Secrets from the Agatha Christie Archives is destined to become an essential reference tool for fans librarians scholars antiquarian booksellers broadcasters and others interested in the making of one of the 20th century's most beloved writers. Jared Cade is an acknowledged authority on Christianna Crime Time. Fear of Fiction David Neal Miller, 2012-02-01. David Neal Miller's Fear of Fiction is the first book length study that begins with the understanding that Singer is truly a Yiddish writer in language and culture. With the exception of a handful of articles American critical examination of Isaac Bashevis Singer's work has been devoted to Singer's work in English to those pieces he himself has selected for translation. This American Nobel laureate is part of a long tradition of Yiddish literature and he still writes in that language. Working exclusively with Singer's Yiddish texts many of the pieces discussed here are not available in English. Miller examines Singer's narrative strategies his blurring of the distinctions between fiction and reportage. Fear of Fiction captures an intriguing paradox of Singer's writing. Singer fictionalizes the factual and historicizes the imaginative. Miller demonstrates that Singer is no inspired innocent but that this blending of genres is the work of a craftsman who uses genre to mediate between the world and the imagination. The book is enriched by Miller's careful and sensitive translations of many illustrative Yiddish passages. Fear of Fiction is both erudite and entertaining. Miller not only examines Singer's skillful undermining of our expectations of different genres but also draws the reader into Singer's work as a whole. This book will fascinate both the scholar and the sophisticated reader of Singer. Eight Lessons in Love Mark Spilka, 1997. A critical study of eight fictional treatments of domestic violence combining professional understanding of domestic violence with fictional attempts to cope with the theme. Includes complete stories by Ernest Hemingway John Cheever George Eliot D H Lawrence John Steinbeck Isaac Bashevis Singer James Joyce and Ann Petry. For students and academics.
