Sunday night Janna Wade went to sleep and had the dream The black clouds roiling in the sky The isolated farmhouse beckoning in the distance The stairway leading into nothing The choking sobs coming from behind the door Open the door Janna Don't be afraid your screams will wake you When Janna does awaken it's Tuesday an entire day lost Yet according to her friends she was at work her e-mails were answered her lunch dates were met and her phone calls were returned In fact it was a day just like any other Except Janna doesn't remember a thing It's as if she wasn't there at all And if Janna wasn't there who was The answer comes with a stranger a woman who knows what becomes of Janna's lost nights who knows what Janna dreams and who knows that from now on Janna's every waking hour will be a nightmare See How She Runs

York street down such dark stairs to do something so dangerous She was the last of five strangers compelled to the same basement room None of them had been there before but they believed it was a place to share their stories to erase their fears to make the horror of their dreams end Instead it was where they met their fate screaming for their lives in the darkness Five people all tortured to death Five people with nothing in common Or so it seems But then Detective David Rodriguez and reporter Mari Kinsella begin to find connections among the victims begin to find others haunted by the same strange nightmares that drove the five to their deaths begin themselves to fall into a deadly danger that should only exist in dreams
