Committee on New Materials in Instruction,1920 Jack London: a Man in Search of Meaning Stewart Gabel,2012-11-30 Jack London was the best known and probably the most widely read American author at the turn of the 20th century London was interested in the issues of who humans are in relation to one another to other species and to life itself Much of Londons life and writing can be viewed from psychological perspectives as an exploration of the issue of meaning in life generally and as a quest for meaning in his own life C G Jung was an early psychoanalyst who broke from Freud and established his own school of analytical psychology Jung was himself intensely concerned with the issue of meaning For Jung the decisive question for man is Is he related to something infinite or not page 325 Jack London certainly would have agreed with the crucial nature of this question In Jack London A Man in Search of Meaning Jungian Perspectives the author uses the prism of analytical psychology to examine Londons life and quest for meaning from deeply psychological and archetypal perspectives that are revealed in Londons writings both fictional and nonfictional The book begins with a brief biographical sketch and personality description of Jack London This is followed by a focus on the question of meaning in his life The next chapter addresses the issue of meaning from the perspective of analytical psychology Jung Selected fiction from three periods in Londons career is considered analytically in subsequent chapters These periods are his early adult middle and last years The discussion of each work of fiction is preceded by a brief biographical statement of events in Londons life at the time of the writing and a brief review of the narrative A concluding chapter summarizes Londons quest for meaning and where it might have led him from the perspectives of analytical psychology if he had lived beyond his untimely death at 40 years of age There are two appendices One contains a longer biographical statement Appendix A The second Appendix B provides longer more detailed summaries of the works that are discussed These longer descriptions include quotes from the texts themselves that reveal the immediacy passion and soulful flavor of so much of Londons writings The Unexploited West Ernest J.

The Rough Poets Melanie Dennis Unrau, 2024-10-15 Oil workers are often typecast as rough embodying the toxic masculinity racism consumerist excess and wilful ignorance of the extractive industries and petrostates they work for But their poetry troubles these assumptions revealing the fear confusion betrayal and indignation hidden beneath tough personas The Rough Poets presents poetry by workers in the Canadian oil and gas industry collecting and closely reading texts published between 1938 and 2019 S C Ellis's Northland Trails Peter Christensen's Rig Talk Dymphy Dronyk's Contrary Infatuations Mathew Henderson's The Lease Naden Parkin's A Relationship with Truth Lesley Battler's Endangered Hydrocarbons and Lindsay Bird's Boom Time These writers are uniquely positioned Melanie Dennis Unrau argues both as petropoets who write poetry about oil and as theorists of petropoetics with unique knowledge about how to make and unmake worlds that depend on fossil fuels Their ambivalent playful crude and honest petropoetry shows that oil workers grieve the environmental and social impacts of their work worry about climate change and the futures of their communities and desire jobs and ways of life that are good safe and just How does it feel to be a worker in the oil and gas industry in a climate emergency facing an energy transition that threatens your way of life Unrau takes up this question with the respect care and imagination necessary to be an environmentalist reader in solidarity with oil workers
