approach is empirical and historical The study examines the production and reception literary and historical contexts of the films and dramas It is the first detailed overview of the British spy screen in its crucial period since the 1960s and provides fresh attention to spy films series and serials never previously considered Australian Artists in the Contemporary Museum Dr Jennifer Barrett, Dr Jacqueline Millner, 2014-05-28 In Australia the artist's engagement with the museum is traditionally regarded as having an important role in the colonial project but as times have changed the post colonial viewpoint has come to the fore The authors of Australian Artists and the Museum propose that the artist's engagement has moved from politically informed critique taking place in museums of fine art towards a critique of the creation of knowledge taking place in non art museums assuming new forms including the artist acting as curator art interventions that highlight the use of taxonomic modes of display and categorization and the engagement with the aesthetics of collections to suggest different readings of objects and artefacts Australian National Cinema Tom O'Regan, 2005-08-10 Situates Australian cinema in its historical and cultural perspective offering detailed critiques of key films from 1970 onwards and using them to illustrate the recent theories on the cinema industries Finding Home Erik Peacock, 2012-01-27 At four years of age Erik emigrated from Britain to the island State of Tasmania with his non conforming family After living in the woods the family continued to home educate helping to pioneer the home education movement in Australia What followed was a long personal journey to find a place in a society undergoing rapid change Intense religious experiences and hard edged political activism play out against a backdrop of ongoing conflict over the preservation and destruction of wilderness in one of the world's special places This gives a unique insider perspective on alternative education nature and spirituality social activism and national identity Often humorous sometimes tragic this is a very personal story of engaging with public life about finding the divine in odd places about social conflict and about finding in the end those things that hold us together It is about the strange ways that love finds us It is a story of finding home
