Search To Belong Rethinking Intimacy Community And Small Groups:

The Search to Belong Joseph R. Myers, 2011-01-04 A practical guide for those struggling to build a community of believers in a culture that wants to experience belonging over believing Who is my neighbor Who belongs to me To whom do I belong These are timeless questions that guide the church to its fundamental calling Today terms like neighbor family and congregation are being redefined People are searching to belong in new places and experiences The church needs to adapt its interpretations definitions and language to make sense in the changing culture This book equips congregations and church leaders with tools to Discern the key ingredients people look for in community Understand the use of space as a key element for experiencing belonging and community Develop the chemical compound that produces an environment for community to spontaneously emerge Discover how language promotes specific spatial belonging and then use this knowledge to build an effective vocabulary for community development Create an assessment tool for evaluating organizational and personal community health

A Heart for the Community John Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference

Outside the Camp Garth Cross, 2017-01-13 If you're looking for a feel good read Outside the Camp is not it If you want joy without lament grace without sin light without darkness or love without pain read something else In fact the wince factor of this book is through the roof and I thought someone ought to warn you But if you want to read something that is profoundly and Biblically true revolutionary and life changing this is it Garth has given Gods people a wonderful gift and I rise up and call him blessed You will too Steve Brown professor author radio show host and leader of Key Life Network I have more thoughts emotions and places your story took me than I am able to capture I had to let you know that the Lord has deeply impacted me through your book Thank you Jim Amandus Senior Pastor at Highlands Community Church near Seattle Outside the Camp tells the story of a former pastors journey through a season of turmoil and personal failure The story of his decade of disillusionment sets the context for his observations as a church outsider in regards to how evangelical churches often fail in response to the wounded the outcasts and the sinners in their midst Offered in the form of Biblical lament three concerns are addressed the evangelical church does not truly offer or even fully understand the gospel of grace it preaches instead suggesting that believers need to try harder and do more to prove themselves worthy of God's favor the faith community is artificial rather than authentic and too often the wounds of its soldiers are left unattended people whose pain is too deep and complex for the church to easily comprehend are referred outside the church for the help they need to survive or they are simply neglected The book concludes with a consideration of God's intent to restore sinners by offering grace that is full and free with a call for the church to once again communicate the unadulterated gospel to all who need its healing balm

Exponential Groups Allen White, 2017-02-01 This book brims with effective strategies for recruiting leaders connecting members into groups coaching groups for success and giving people something to say yes to even when they have rejected church wide campaigns previously offered by their churches Keys to effective ongoing groups include leadership training ongoing coaching appropriate recordkeeping as well as a sequence of aligned series rather than just a single occasional campaign This book provides fundamentals that will insure ongoing success proven principles used effectively in hundreds of churches across North America Readers of Exponential Groups will learn how to connect their unconnected members into community recruit the group leaders needed to connect and grow their congregation coach group leaders for a sustainable group structure that will serve their church for years to come understand how to maintain current discipleship strategies and implement new strategies without alienating their members or derailing their current systems

The Justice Project (Immersion: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Brian McLaren, Elisa Padilla, Ashley Bunting Seeber, 2009-09-01 Justice and the call for change are in the air Whether it's extreme poverty human rights racism or the Middle East news outlets bombard us with stories about the need for justice in the world But how are Christians to respond to these stories and the conditions to which they refer Here's help Editors Brian McLaren Elisa Padilla and Ashley Bunting Seeber have amassed a collection of over 30 brief chapters by some of the most penetrating thinkers in the justice conversation including Ren Padilla Peggy Campolo Will and Lisa Samson Sylvia Keesmaat Bart Campolo Lynne Hybels Tony Jones and Richard Twiss Divided into sections God of Justice Book of Justice Justice in the USA Just World and Just Church The Justice Project invites readers to deepen their understanding of the pressures our world faces and to take up the challenge of alleviating them Never has the world been in greater need of Christians who do justice love mercy and walk humbly with God This resource will help them do just that

Activate Nelson Searcy, 2010-10-27 Church leaders want to know how to make small groups work for their church communities yet a quick look around shows that while small groups are all the rage much of the time they create more problems than they solve Nelson Searcy and Kerrick Thomas founding pastors of The Journey Church in the heart of New York City suggest that this failu Together We Equip Jody Dean, Hal Stewart, 2018-02-23 In Together We Equip you will discover the biblical foundation for equipping others Equipping others in ministry is a process you bring with you as the leader Its both personal and public Its you as an individual and your church This book will challenge you to take responsibility to grow spiritually engage the culture and share the gospel Further you will discover the impact of discipleship in the local church by examining mentoring small groups and preaching as relevant means to equip others In the later chapters of the book seasoned church ministry leaders with years of experience in making disciples through equipping ministry of the local church share many practical ways to equip others and lead church ministries childrens ministry youth ministry collegiate ministry mens and womens ministry adult and senior adult ministries Many ministry leaders do not know how to make disciples They know accept and believe the Great Commission Matt 28 19-20 Yet they struggle with practical approaches and methods to carry out a viable equipping ministry The book will help you elevate the importance of personal growth making disciples and assist you to align your age graded and gender based ministry leadership development

Making Room for Leadership MaryKate Morse, 2010-01-15 You don't just lead with your voice and your decisions You lead with your body The way you take up space in a room the way you use or don't use your body in group settings influences others And all of us hold power to lead in our bodies Yet pastor and spiritual director MaryKate Morse contends most of us are unaware of the ways we do or can use our bodies to influence others Some of us cower in the corner trying to hide Others try to speak but are never heard Still others are the focal point as soon as they walk in a room What makes the difference And how can we learn to lead in our own individual way with confidence In Making Room for Leadership Morse explores different types of power in the body delineating how each type can be used for good or for harm highlights how people gain and give leadership in group settings helps you identify the kind of power you as a unique individual hold Throughout Christ's use of power serves as the guide for how to lead in ways that are life giving and empowering to others We all can lead We all have some kind of power in us Once we become aware of our influence we can direct it toward good toward building others up Doing just that in these pages Morse helps you learn to do the same in the places you live move and have your being Organic Community (ēmerſion: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Joseph R. Myers, 2007-05-01 Community is a fundamental life search and one of the key aspects people look for in a congregation But community can't be forced controlled or easily created The problem says Joseph R Myers is that churches are too focused on developing programs instead of concentrating on environments where community will spontaneously emerge Organic Community challenges key leaders to become environmentalists people who create or shape environments Outlining nine organizational tools for creating a healthy environment Myers shows readers how to diagnose their current situation and implement patterns that will develop possibilities for healthy communities Books That Change lives CLC Publications, 2014-08-19

The Highest of All Mountains Samuel K. Sarpiya, 2021-03-18 This book is for people who believe that the gospel is a message of peace and this gospel of peace is relevant for our time Peacemaking is a core part of our Christian discipleship just as we learn how to pray just as we learn how to love our neighbors just as we learn how to feed the hungry We can also learn how to be peacemakers Sarpiya believes that peacemaking is central to the Christian faith and practice This book will serve as a guide that will offer a scriptural guide with practical stories and applications Readers will be challenged by Scripture to take the call to peacemaking into their communities The fact that numerous peace treaties have collapsed serves to show how difficult it is to transcend cycles of violence and foster a sustained durable peace The one place that one could look to for answers about how to move toward peace is within faith communities and sometimes not just one faith acting alone but working alongside other faiths in concert with other faiths taking an interreligious approach The Highest of All Mountains shows how Sarpiya's Christian peacemaking backed by the interreligious approach brings the monotheistic faiths together as they all agreed on one denominator to their faith's origin Abraham

Identity Tug of War Paul W. Lucas, 2025-07-10 What defines your church What would your church answer to the question who are we Answers would likely include a wide variety of sources from tradition theological distinctives visions origin stories and more Church identity exists across various groups within a particular church and these identities will shift over time Church leadership may define a church's identity in a way that may or may not match the congregational identity This book looks at exploring this complex issue using the tools of social psychology alongside practical theology in developing tools for church leadership to operate in awareness of the multifaceted identity of the church This was explored through narrative inquiry into several churches which helped to explore the efficacy of these tools in the work of church leadership's understanding of congregational identity
