Seasons Of The Spirit Meditations Of A Jogging Nun:

Seasons of the Spirit Sister Helena Marie, Lorca Morella, 1994 On her daily run through a New York City park Sr Helena Marie meditates on the changing seasons as a parable of our spiritual journey This stunning journal of prayer follows the circle of the year from summer to autumn and winter to spring Striking full color photos accompany the lyrical text The Living Church ,1994-07 New Books on Women and Feminism ,1994 Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing, R5ference Reed, 1995-12 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2000-06 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 You Are Not Here and Other Works of Buddhist Fiction Keith Kachtick, 2006-04-24 2004 s Nixon Under the Bodhi Tree and Other Works of Buddhist Fiction was hailed as a milestone and an embarrassment of literary riches Its sequel proves that this new genre is here to stay Edited by Keith Kachtick the author of Hungry Ghost A Novel A New York Times Notable Book You Are Not Here and Other Works of Buddhist Fiction offers even more sparkling and transcendent work from some of fiction s famous names alongside names you ve never heard before but surely will again Book jacket

Not Where I Started From Kate Wheeler, 1993 Stories evoke the theme of Americans struggling to cope in the midst of strange cultures such as a teenager in Central America a New Yorker in Miami s Little Cuba and a novitiate in a Burmese monastery Holy People of the World Phyllis G. Jestice, 2004-12-15 A cross cultural encyclopedia of the most significant holy people in history examining why people in a wide range of religious traditions throughout the world have been regarded as divinely inspired The first reference on the subject to span all the world s major religions Holy People of the World A Cross Cultural Encyclopedia examines the impact of individuals who through personal charisma and inspirational deeds served both as glorious examples of human potential and as envoys for the divine Holy People of the World contains nearly 1 100 biographical sketches of venerated men and women Written by religious studies experts and historians each article focuses on the basic question How did this person come to be regarded as holy In addition the encyclopedia features 20 survey articles on views of holy people in the major religious traditions such as Islam Buddhism and African religions as well as 64 comparative articles on aspects of holiness and veneration across cultures such as awakening and conversion experiences heredity gender asceticism and persecution Whether exploring by religion culture or historic period this extensively cross referenced resource offers a wealth of insights into one of the most revealing and least explored common denominators of spiritual traditions New York Magazine ,1997-06-23 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Textbook of Palliative Care Roderick Duncan MacLeod, Lieve Van den Block, 2025-02-25 This second edition provides the most up to date information on all aspects of palliative care including recent developments including COVID 19 global policies service provision symptom management professional aspects organization of services palliative care for specific populations palliative care emergencies ethical issues in palliative care research in palliative care public health approaches and financial aspects of care This new Textbook of Palliative Care remains a unique comprehensive clinically relevant and state of the art book aimed at advancing palliative care as a science a clinical practice and as an art Palliative care has been part of healthcare for over fifty years but it still needs to be explained to many Healthcare education and training has been slow to recognize the vital importance of ensuring that all practitioners have a good understanding of what is involved in the care of people with serious or advanced illnesses and their families However the science of palliative care is advancing and this new edition will contribute to a better understanding This new edition offers 86 updated or new chapters out of 108 written by experts in their given fields providing up to date information on a wide range of topics of relevance to those providing care towards the end of life no matter what the disease may be We present a global perspective on contemporary and classic issues in palliative care with authors from a wide range of disciplines involved in this essential aspect of care The Textbook includes sections addressing aspects such as symptom management and care provision organization of care in different settings care in specific disease groups palliative care emergencies ethics public health approaches and research in palliative care This new Textbook will be of value to practitioners in all disciplines and professions where the care of people approaching death is important specialists as well as non specialists in any setting where people with serious advanced illnesses are residing It is also an important resource for researchers policy and decision makers at national or regional levels Neither the science nor the art of palliative care will stand still so the Editors and contributors from all over the world aim to keep this Textbook updated so that the reader can find new evidence and approaches to care
