Seasons Of Grief Helping Your Children Grow Through Loss:

The Seasons of Grief Donna A. Gaffney, 1988      The Seasons of Grief Donna A. Gaffney, 1989      Dying, Death, and Bereavement Inge Corless, RN, PhD, FAAN, Inge B. Corless, Barbara B. Germino, Mary A. Pittman, DrPH, 2006-06-02 Based on practice knowledge of the authors rather than on research this book may be particularly useful for those professionals who have not had hands on experience with people at the last stages of dying It is a resource that can be referred to time and again by those who care for people facing the final stage of life      Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill      Mending the Torn Fabric Sarah Brabant, 2016-11-03 The analogy of the torn fabric was first used by the author in response to a bereaved mother s cry I know what grief feels like I don t know what it looks like In Mending the Torn Fabric For Those Who Grieve and Those Who Want to Help Them the author expands the metaphor to include earlier and future or potential losses as well as losses associated with the death that may be unrecognized or minimized This book includes chapters that examine complications that may be present or may arise suggestions for mending even the most torn fabric and a chapter dedicated to friends who want to help Stories bereaved persons have shared with the author through the years are interspersed throughout the book to provide examples of loss and mending      Talking about Death Earl A. Grollman, 1990 Why do people die How do you explain the loss of a loved one to a child This book is a compassionate guide for adults and children to read together featuring a readalong story answers to questions children ask about death and a comprehensive list of resources and organizations that can help      Widow To Widow Genevieve Davis Ginsburg, 2024-09-24 From a widow and therapist a guide to life after losing a husband with reflections on grief and practical advice A wise practical and eminently useful guide for a woman struggling to rebuild her life after the death of her husband Highly recommended Nathan Branden PhD author of Honoring the Self The death of a husband is devastating and such a loss prompts a wide range of questions about everything from the big issues to the small details Will my emotional wounds ever heal Will I feel like myself again How do I begin to tackle the finances Will my friends treat me differently Do I need to move out of the house Author therapist and fellow widow Genevieve Davis Ginsburg offers you as well as your family and friends sage advice for coping with the loss of a husband With testimonials from other widows Ginsburg walks you through the many challenges both expected and unexpected from learning to travel and eat alone to surviving holidays and anniversaries from starting a community support group to dating again An essential resource for a trying period of life Widow to Widow equips you with the gentle encouragement and practical strategies you need to start along the path to building a new life Ms Ginsburg has written the most useful practical and compassionate guide to surviving widowhood This is must reading not only for widows but also for their family and friends Harold

Bloomfield MD author of How to Survive the Loss of a Love      Books to Help Children Cope with Separation and Loss

Joanne E. Bernstein, Masha Kabakow Rudman, 1989 Here are some 750 fiction nonfiction books from folklore to poetry focusing on separation loss themes for young people Arranged by topic each annotated entry provides a review of plot theme interest age level suggestions for use complete bibliographic information This is the ideal reference guide for those who have the opportunity to help children through separation loss ranging from going away to camp to the death of a sibling      Put

Yourself in Their Shoes Barbara Meltz, 2011-04-27 Wouldn't parenting be easier if you could see into the mind of your child Learn to hear what your child can't or won't tell you and Understand Behavior Build Values Nurture Closeness Solve Problems In her popular Boston Globe column Child Caring Barbara Meltz has been writing about real life parenting issues for more than a decade She has found that instead of divorce or moving the situations parents think of as stressful children's concerns are often linked to commonplace events such as sleepovers or the first day of school In this wise compassionate book Meltz offers parents a unique window into their child's inner life She includes candid illuminating observations from kids themselves and offers advice on what to ask listen for or observe to decode puzzling behavior how to get a child to talk about his or her problems and how to find the best way to solve conflicts By focusing on developmental trouble spots not age her approach is as helpful to the parents of a two year old as to those of a twelve year old From keeping secrets to going to camp to larger issues such as stealing or death in the family Put Yourself in Their Shoes offers a way to see inside a child's world and help to make it safe and strong From the Trade Paperback edition      Helping Children Grow Up in the 90's

National Association of School Psychologists, 1992 Addresses many areas that place children at risk for social and educational failure      Solutions Mordecai Siegal, Matthew Margolis, 2002-03-26 Provides information about some of the day to day concerns of dog owners offering suggestions tips and tutorials on getting a dog bonding training housebreaking toys grooming health first aid travel behavior problems and other topics      Listening for the Soul Jean Stairs, This book explores the relationship between the practices of pastoral care and the practices of spiritual direction with the aim of enabling pastoral caregivers to draw upon the guiding principles resources and techniques of spiritual direction within the Christian tradition With an emphasis on both practice and presence the book reclaims the tradition of soul care for the pastoral ministry thereby complementing the medical or crisis intervention model of pastoral care with a wellness growth model of pastoral care Listening for the Soul Challenges clergy to take seriously the relationship between pastoral care and spiritual direction Integrates theological and psychological insights with issues of spiritual life and formation Includes a chapter on the spiritual formation of children Provides practical guidance for integrating spiritual direction with pastoral care Tends to the pastoral caregivers own needs for spiritual deepening Includes reflection questions and case studies to enable the text to function on both the individual reader and classroom levels

Raising Black Children James P. Comer, Alvin F. Poussaint, 1992-11 Along with the traditional demands of parenthood black parents face an even more challenging task fighting the negative messages of racism while teaching their children to succeed in a white dominated culture In this timely book two eminent psychiatrists address these concerns The Parent's Desk Reference Irene M.
