

Banish animosity
Summon endearment
You are kindred to each one you greet each one you deal with crossing the world
Salute the love ability in all those you meet Elicit the beauty that hides in all flesh
Let freedom of feeling liberate mankind
Love one another
at last

these and other durable queries concerning the ontological powers of naming and do so in the light of recent artistic practices theoretical innovations and philosophical incitements Combining detailed case studies of concrete category problems in literature philosophy media cinema politics painting theatre and the performing arts with a range of indispensable excerpts from canonical texts by notable field defining thinkers such as Apter Cassin Cavell Derrida Irigaray Malabou and Nancy among others the volume presents the Geschlecht complex as a condition to become aware of and in turn to companionably underwrite any interpretive endeavor Historically grounded yet attuned to the particularities of the present the Geschlecht complex becomes an invaluable mode for thinking and theorizing while ensconced in the urgent immediacy of pressing concerns and poised for the inevitable complexities of categorial naming and genre discernment that await in the so often inscrutable translation resistant twenty first century

Symposium of the Whole Jerome Rothenberg, Diane Rothenberg, 2016-04-19 Symposium of the Whole traces a discourse on poetry and culture that has profoundly influenced the art of our time with precedents going back two centuries and more Beginning with a reassertion of the complexity of poetry among peoples long labeled primitive and savage many recent poets have sought to base a new poetics over the fullest range of human cultures The attempt to define an ethnopoetics has been significantly connected with the most experimental and future directed side of Romantic and modern poetry both in the Western world and increasingly outside it As a visionary poetics and as a politics this complex redefinition of cultural and intellectual values has involved a rarely acknowledged collaboration between poets and scholars who together have challenged the narrow view of literature that has excluded so many traditions In this gathering the Rothenbergs follow the idea of an ethnopoetics from predecessors such as Vico Blake Thoreau and Tzara to more recent essays and manifestos by poets and social thinkers such as Olson Eliade Snyder Turner and Baraka The themes range widely from the divergence of oral and written cultures to the shaman as proto poet and the reemergence of suppressed and rejected forms and images the goddess the trickster and the human universe The book's three ethnographic sections demonstrate how various poetries are structured and composed how they reflect meaning and worldview and how they are performed in cultures where all art may be thought of as art in motion Among the poetries discussed are the language of magic West African drum language and poetry the Huichol Indian language of reversals chance operations in African divination poetry picture writings and action writings from Australia and Africa and American Indian sacred clown dramas and traditional trickster narratives The cumulative effect is a new reading of the poetic past and present in the editors words a changed paradigm of what poetry was or now could come to be

Shamanic Elements in the Poetry of Ted Hughes Ewa Panecka, 2018-04-18 This study on religious experience in modern poetry features innovative and accessible close readings of some of the most beloved authors of English verse In today's seemingly secular age religion still remains a highly contested subject The selection of texts analysed here is representative of a wide spectrum of attitudes including a sharply critical refusal to acknowledge Christianity as the basis of civilization

Some poets see national religion as a framework for cultural identity while others worship nature as the omnipotent Force of Life trying to create their own gods Rather than reducing poetry to a background for philosophical analysis or theological deliberation this book presents diverse modes of the poetic endeavor to capture and convey the divine The chapters provide a range of perspectives on individual experience rendered into poetry as a subtle relationship between faith perception and language The text will be of interest to anyone looking for new ways of reading poetry as a spiritual quest
