

Shane

He'd always had mixed feelings seeing Rick's picturesque family. Having never explored those feelings further, the realization had finally hit him after taking Lori and Carl into his protection — he envied Rick. He had never intended to replace Rick by looking after them, and he had truly regretted leaving Rick behind in Atlanta. That regret had festered and become guilt. He should have been the one shot back on that highway. It was that guilt that had spurred him to take responsibility for Rick's family. And he had been good at it.

Things would have been better if Rick had never come back.

Shane reached for his piece without thinking, too focused on Lori embracing Rick. He released the safety.

This would solve everything.

He just needed a reason.

Maybe Rick had been bitten by one of the walkers earlier in the forest. Maybe Rick had begged him to
