

Think, Pair, Share: Will Shari'ah law be the same everywhere?

There are five different schools of interpretation of sharia: one in the Shia tradition of Islam and four in the Sunni tradition. Middle Eastern countries of the former Ottoman empire favour the Hanafi doctrine and north African countries prefer the Maliki doctrine; Indonesia and Malaysia follow the Shafi'i doctrine; Saudi Arabia adheres to the Hanbali doctrine; and Iran follows the Shia Jaafari school. All the schools are similar, but some take a more literal approach to texts while others prefer a loose interpretation.

The many faces of Sharia

By Prof. Amrutha Michael Sathya

When many non-Muslims think of the Sharia, they often conjure up an image of a public beheading or amputation.

However, Sharia offers autonomy in its various implementations throughout the Islamic world.

Saudi Arabia has long practised a harsh form of the law, under which murderers and drug smugglers may be executed, thieves lose their hands, and adulterers may be stoned.

But as Islamic states of the Anglo-Saxon Foundation in London explains, this does not offer a satisfactory understanding of the Sharia.

"Some offences require harsher penalties, but of course, it's not the case that everyone in Saudi Arabia is walking around with a sword or other lethal weapon. Nor are they all in fear of being put to the sword or being beheaded," he says.

Other Muslims add that Saudi Arabia's judges are the only branch of state over which the country's royal family has no control, as Sharia makes them heavily independent of all but their religious obligations.

Yet, as the Anglo-Saxon explains, not all Muslim countries prevent politics from interfering with the purity of Sharia.

Islamic Divorce in the Twenty-First Century Erin E. Stiles, Ayang Utriza Yakin, 2022-09-16 Islamic Divorce in the 21st Century shows the wide range of Muslim experiences in marital disputes and in seeking Islamic divorces For Muslims having the ability to divorce in accordance with Islamic law is of paramount importance However Muslim experiences of divorce practice differ tremendously The chapters in this volume discuss Islamic divorce from West Africa to Southeast Asia and each story explores aspects of the everyday realities of disputing and divorcing Muslim couples face in the twenty first century The book's cross cultural and comparative look at Islamic divorce indicates that Muslim divorces are impacted by global religious discourses on Islamic authority authenticity and gender by global patterns of and approaches to secularity and by global economic inequalities and attendant patterns of urbanization and migration Studying divorce as a mode of Islamic law in practice shows us that the Islamic legal tradition is flexible malleable and context dependent

The Penguin Dictionary of Islam Azim Nanji, 2008-04-24 Islam today is a truly global faith yet it remains somewhat of an enigma to many of us Each and every day our newspapers are saturated with references to Islam Quran Taliban Hijab Fatwa Allah Sunni Jihad Shia the list goes on But how much do we really understand Are we in fact misunderstanding The Penguin Dictionary of Islam provides complete impartial answers It includes extensive coverage of the historical formations of the worldwide Muslim community and highlights key modern Muslim figures and events Understanding Islam is vital to understanding our world and this text is the definitive authority designed for both general and academic readers

Voices of Islam Virginia G. Blakemore-Henry, Vincent J. Cornell, Omid Safi, 2006-12-30 Despite frequent and extensive publications on Islam very few Americans indeed very few non Muslims truly understand the faith or the more than one billion adherents who live it This set presents the diversity and richness of Islam filling in the blanks and expanding our knowledge and understanding Portraying Muslims in all their humanity and diversity balances the images that have bombarded society and presents the reader with a fuller and more accurate picture of the Islamic faith and what it means to live as a Muslim in Muslim communities and as part of a broader tapestry of pluralism in the nations of the world What does it mean to share Muslim concerns To experience Muslim spirituality What is the difference between Sunni and Shiite sects Why do Muslims pray so frequently What is the reality of Muslim marriage and gender relations What is the meaning of jihad and martyrdom to a practicing Muslim What role do the arts and humanities play in modern Muslim life How are Islamic children raised These questions and others are answered in these volumes which bring together Muslim voices from around the world including men and women scholars and laypersons fundamentalists and progressives and others from various cultural political and Islamic backgrounds Personal experiences and poetry are included to illustrate the many different expressions of Islam      Perceptions of Self, Power, & Gender Among Muslim Women Sarwar

Alam,2018-02-15 This book analyzes perceptions of self power agency and gender of Muslim women in a rural community of Bangladesh Rural women s limited power and agency has been subsumed within the male dominated Islamic discourses on gender However many Muslim women have their own alternative discourses surrounding power and agency Sarwar Alam intertwines an exploration of these power dynamics with reading of the Qur an and Hadith and analyzes how Muslim women s perception of power and gender are linked to their relationship with religion      Legal Pluralism in Conflict Prakash

Shah,2005 Legal Pluralism in Conflict offers a new theoretical perspective for conceptualising and analysing the relationship between ethnic minority laws and the official legal order It will be invaluable to students and researchers concerned with law s relationship to and treatment of ethnic and religious diversity as well as to those with wider interests in the limits and possibilities of political pluralism      Legal Traditions of the World H. brought out in a series of 12 independent books covering a total of 460 articles Every volume contains two sections The first section contains the biographical sketch of Prof P Chenna Reddy his achievements and contribution to archaeology history and Society The second section of each volume is subject specific Law and Society in East Asia Christoph Antons,2017-07-05 The massive and complex process of change in East Asia over recent decades has brought about a transformation in the nature of law and legal institutions in the region Whilst the process of change has to some degree mimicked western models of law and legal change there have been significant differences in approach due to the different social foundations of East Asian societies The more obvious of these has been the variety of ways in which rule of law ideas have been adopted in many East Asian countries where the role of the state is more dominant when compared with Western models This volume brings together a selection of the most important writings on East Asia of researchers in recent years and shows the broad range of questions which researchers have been addressing about the effect of law reform and legal change in societies dominated by traditional values and political forces and at a time of massive economic change The School of Hillah and the Formation of Twelver Shi'i Islamic Tradition Aun Hasan Ali,2023-06-15 Against the background of long standing narratives in which Twelver Shi ism is viewed as fundamentally authoritarian The School of Hillah and the Formation of Twelver Shi i Islamic Tradition builds upon recent scholarship in the fields of Religious Studies Anthropology and History to argue that Twelver Shi ism is better understood as a discursive tradition At a conceptual level this solves the basic problem of how to integrate the extraordinary diversity of Twelver Shi ism across time and space into a single historical category without engaging in a normative assessment of its underlying essence Furthermore in light of this conception of tradition the School of Hillah stands out as a seminal period in the archive of Twelver Shi ism though it has seldom been recognized as such in European language scholarship Insofar as it gave birth to a conversation that would prove capable of encompassing the dynamism of Twelver Shi ism the School of Hillah should be considered the formative period of Twelver Shi i tradition Moreover when the tradition is conceptualized in this manner it is a bulwark against the very authoritarianism by which Twelver Shi ism has been characterized for so long A Continuity of Shari'a Brian Wright,2023-03-07 A challenge to the end of the shari a thesis in Islamic legal historiography In the second half of the nineteenth century states across the Muslim World developed new criminal codes and reshaped their legal landscapes laying the foundations of the systems that continue to inform the application of justice today Influenced by colonialism and the rise of the modern state s desire to control its populations many have seen the introduction of these codes as a pivotal shift and divergence from the shari a the dominant paradigm in premodern Muslim jurisdictions In A Continuity of Shari a Brian Wright challenges this view comparing among the Egyptian Ottoman and Indian contexts By examining the environment in which the new codes were created highlighting the work of local scholars and legal actors and examining the content of the codes themselves Wright argues that the criminal systems of the late nineteenth century have more connections to their past than is previously understood Colonial influence was adapted to local circumstances and synthesized with premodern understandings in an eclectic legal environment to create solutions to local problems while maintaining a continuity with the shari'a. This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Islamic Studies Islamic Law and Islamic Legal History Islam and Women's Income Farah Chowdhury, 2016-12 Women and Islam in Bangladesh Muslim family law in Bangladesh CEDAW Islamic law and women in Bangladesh Dowry women and law in Bangladesh Women income and dowry in Bangladesh Everyday Islamic Law and the Making of Modern South Asia Elizabeth Lhost, 2025-02-20 Beginning in the late eighteenth century British rule transformed the relationship between law society and the state in South Asia. But qazis and muftis alongside ordinary people without formal training in law fought back as the colonial system in India sidelined Islamic legal experts. They petitioned the East India Company for employment lobbied imperial legislators for recognition and built robust institutions to serve their communities. By bringing legal debates into the public sphere they resisted the colonial state's authority over personal law and rejected legal codification by embracing flexibility and possibility. With postcards letters and telegrams they made everyday Islamic law vibrant and resilient and challenged the hegemony of the Anglo-Indian legal system. Following these developments from the beginning of the Raj through independence Elizabeth Lhost rejects narratives of stagnation and decline to show how an unexpected coterie of scholars practitioners and ordinary individuals negotiated the contests and challenges of colonial legal change. The rich archive of unpublished fatwa files qazi notebooks and legal documents they left behind chronicles their efforts to make Islamic law relevant for everyday life even beyond colonial courtrooms and the confines of family law. Lhost shows how ordinary Muslims shaped colonial legal life and how their diversity and difference have contributed to contemporary debates about religion law pluralism and democracy in South Asia and beyond Routledge Handbook of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhammad Khairudin Aljunied, 2022-03-03 This handbook explores the ways in which Islam as one of the fastest growing religions has become a global faith for both Muslims and non-Muslims in Southeast Asia with its universality inclusivity and shared features with other Islamic expressions and manifestations. It offers an up-to-date wide-ranging comprehensive concise and readable introduction to the field of Islam in Southeast Asia. With specific themes of pertinent contemporary relevance the contributions by experts in the field provide fresh insights into the roles of states societies scholars social movements political parties economic institutions sacred sites and other forces that structured the faith over many centuries. The handbook is structured in three parts Muslim Global Circulations Marginal Narratives Refashioning Pieties. This handbook stands out as a single and synergistic reference work that explores the ebb and flow of Islam seeking to decenter many existing assumptions about it in Southeast Asia. It will be an indispensable resource for scholars students and policymakers working on Islam Muslims and their interactions with other communities in a plural setting.
