Sharing Your Faith With A Muslim Abdiyah Akbar Abdul-Haqq, 1980-08-01 This is the book for you if you are serious about communicating the truth of the Gospel to Muslims It is thorough It is authoritative It is written by a third world Christian whose father was a convert from Islam It is the contention of the author that an effective evangelistic approach to the adherents of Islam must be based upon a study of Christ as He is found in both Scripture and the Koran Christ then becomes the bridge between the two faiths Such a search is to Abdul Haqq the natural means of introducing the Savior Having seen Christ on the pages of the Bible he moves on to a presentation of the great issues of sin salvation and the nature of God as the final pressing points to raise in efforts to win Muslim friends and neighbors to Jesus The Gospel for Muslims

Thabiti Anyabwile, 2018-01-02 How to meet a critical need sharing the gospel with Muslims There are over three million Muslims living in the United States today Soon if not already you will have Muslim neighbors and coworkers Does the thought of reaching out to them with the gospel make you nervous How can you effectively communicate the good news with such large theological differences The Gospel for Muslims can help make sharing your faith easier than you think Thabiti Anyabwile who is himself a convert from Islam to Christianity instructs you in ways to discuss the good news of Christ with your neighbors and friends The Gospel for Muslims allows you to focus on the people rather than the religious system Meant for the average Christian it is not an exhaustive apologetic or comparative study of Christianity and Islam Rather it compellingly stirs confidence in the gospel equipping you with the basics necessary to communicate clearly boldly and winsomely Encountering the World of Islam

Perceptions of Christianity Among South Asian Muslims in America Paul S. Biswas,2020-07-13 This book explores and articulates perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America The South Asian Muslim population in America includes many immigrants and their families This book analyzes the perceptions of Christianity held by South Asian Muslims in three areas theological sociocultural and ethical moral This book addresses both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity

although it mainly focuses on the misperceptions that give rise to conflicting views between Muslim and Christian The primary goal of this book is to consider how flawed perceptions hinder the effective communication of the Christian gospel in efforts to witness to Muslims in America This book further explores the sociocultural and ethnic differences among South Asian Muslims and the ways in which their perceptions of Christianity differ More specifically this book identifies the factors most likely to influence both positive and negative perceptions of Christianity among South Asian Muslims in America This book also briefly explores the multi faceted historical background of Islam in South Asia and the impact Islam has had on the assumptions and perceptions of Christianity of South Asian people in general and specifically on the thinking and perceptions of South Asian Muslims in America This book includes qualitative research using an ethnographic case study approach Data presented in this book are collected from two different sources scholarly literature related to the focal group and structured interviews with a representative sample of South Asian Muslims in America The anticipated result is to provide useful information and insights so Christian practitioners can develop useful tools for building harmonious relationships with South Asian Muslims in America and effectively communicating the gospel to them     Preaching with Cultural Intelligence Matthew D. Kim,2017-10-17 To preach effectively in today s world preachers need cultural intelligence They must build bridges between listeners who come from various denominations ethnicities genders locations religious backgrounds and more Experienced preacher and teacher Matthew Kim provides a step by step template for cross cultural hermeneutics and homiletics equipping preachers to reach their varied listeners in the church and beyond Each chapter includes questions for individual thought or group discussion The book also includes helpful diagrams and images a sample sermon and appendixes for exegeting listeners and for exploring cultural differences     Muslims and Christians Face to Face Kate Zebiri,2014-10-01 From the Crusades to the present day the interrelationship between Islam and Christianity has been fraught with conflict both theological and military Yet events in 20th century history particularly the communications revolution have meant that after centuries of living in isolation from each other Christians and Muslims find themselves participating in the same intellectual culture and are having to review their assumptions about each other In this work Zebiri analyzes modern Muslim writings on Christianity and Christian writings on Islam to explore the issues central to Muslim Christian relations The literature surveyed is diverse both popular and scholarly varying in function authorship and intended audience Through its juxtaposition of the mutual perceptions of Muslims and Christians the book provides an overview of the more important contrasts and similarities between the two religions     Toward a Healthier Contextualization among Muslims Wonjoo Hwang,2019-01-23 Various ministry approaches have been utilized in Muslim nations in the past in order to lead lost souls into God s Kingdom One noticeable trend in recent years in the ministry is an increasing emphasis on contextualization While the evangelical missiological community searches for more effective contextualization models some ad hoc proposals have complicated the issue One representative case is the Insider Movement among Muslims whose advocates contend that

Muslim followers of Isa Jesus can remain within their own Islamic socio religious community while continuing in Islamic religious practices What is urgently needed in the contemporary discussion on contextualization is to develop a comprehensive analytical framework based on a sound biblical theological foundation for evaluating any missiological model After reviewing the historical development of Muslim evangelism models this study provides such an analytical framework for developing a healthier contextualization model among Muslims and applies this framework to the Insider Movement by critically evaluating the biblical interpretations and missiological reasonings of the Insider Movement advocates The writer calls for a healthier contextualization model among Muslims that is biblically authentic and culturally relevant The
