Sharks and Their Relatives II Jeffrey C. Carrier, John A. Musick, Michael R. Heithaus, 2010-03-09 Since the award winning first volume The Biology of Sharks and Their Relatives published in 2004 the field has witnessed tremendous developments in research rapid advances in technology and the emergence of new investigators beginning to explore issues of biodiversity distribution physiology and ecology in ways that eluded more traditional

The Action Plan for Australian Sharks and Rays 2020 Peter Kyne, Michelle Heupel, William White, Colin Simpfendorfer, 2021-05-26 The Action Plan for Australian Sharks 2020 is the first action plan for Australia's chondrichthyan fishes sharks rays and chimaeras This book presents the IUCN Red List status of all 329 species occurring in Australian waters including Subantarctic and Antarctic waters The majority of the fauna is secure although roughly one in eight species is threatened with extinction The Action Plan presents specific actions required to address knowledge gaps and outlines conservation actions for each species This book is a call to action to secure all of Australia's sharks rays and chimaeras

Rays of the World Peter Last, Gavin Naylor, Bernard Séret, William White, Marcelo de Carvalho, Matthias Stehmann, 2016-12 Rays are among the largest fishes and evolved from shark like ancestors nearly 200 million years ago They share with sharks many life history traits all species are carnivores or scavengers all reproduce by internal fertilisation and all have similar morphological and anatomical characteristics such as skeletons built of cartilage Rays of the World is the first complete pictorial atlas of the world's ray fauna and includes information on many species only recently discovered by scientists while undertaking research for the book It includes all 26 families and 633 valid named species of rays but additional undescribed species exist for many groups Rays of the World features a unique collection of paintings of all living species by Australian natural history artist Lindsay Marshall compiled as part of a multinational research initiative the Chondrichthyan Tree of Life Project Images sourced from around the planet were used by the artist to illustrate the fauna This comprehensive overview of the world's ray fauna summarises information such as general identifying features and distributional information about these iconic but surprisingly poorly known fishes It will enable readers to gain a better understanding of the rich diversity of rays and promote wider public interest in the group Rays of the World is an ideal reference for a wide range of readers including conservationists fishery managers scientists fishers divers students and book collectors A Pocket Guide to Sharks of the World David A. Ebert, Marc Dando, Sarah Fowler, 2021-08-24 An updated and comprehensive guide identifying all of the world's sharks Sharks are some of the most misunderstood animals on the planet We still have a lot to learn about these fascinating creatures which are more seriously threatened with extinction and in greater need of conservation and management than any other major group of vertebrates A Pocket Guide to Sharks of the World is the only field guide to identify illustrate and describe every known shark species Its compact format makes it handy for many situations including recognizing living species fishery catches or parts sold at markets This expanded second edition presents lavish images details on newly discovered species and updated text throughout The book contains useful sections on identifying shark teeth and the shark fins most commonly encountered in the fin trade and takes a look at shark biology ecology and conservation A Pocket Guide to Sharks of the World will be an essential resource and definitive reference for years to come An updated guide to all of the world's sharks Each species is illustrated and described Handy compact format with concise text Useful sections on the identification of shark teeth and fins An Illustrated Pocket Guide to the Sharks of the World David A. Ebert, Sarah Fowler, Sarah L. Fowler, 2014-06-16 Sharks are probably the most misunderstood animals on the planet We all still have a lot to learn about these fascinating creatures which are sadly more seriously threatened with extinction and in greater need of conservation and management action than any other major group of vertebrates We have produced this guide not just because we and so many other people love sharks It is also because their identification whether of living animals fishery catches or body parts sold at markets is an essential tool to support shark conservation fisheries management and international trade regulation prevent further depletion of stocks and enable their recovery the first pocket guide to all 501 shark species all species illustrated and described handy compact format with concise text a six page guide to shark teeth identification an eight page guide to the identification of the shark fins most commonly encountered in the fin trade Colour plates are by Marc Dando from the hugely acclaimed Sharks of the World A Fully Illustrated Guide Sharks of the Open Ocean Merry D. Camhi, Ellen K. Pikitch, Elizabeth A. Babcock, 2009-01-21 This important and exciting title represents the first authoritative volume focussed on pelagic open ocean sharks as a group Virtually every pelagic shark expert in the world has contributed to this landmark publication which includes the latest data and knowledge on pelagic shark biology fisheries management and conservation Pelagic sharks face unprecedented levels of exploitation in all the world's oceans through both direct fisheries and by catch and effective management for these species is contingent upon solid science and data which this book brings together for the first time All those involved in shark biology will need to have a copy of this book

Sharks of the Genus Carcharhinus J. A. F. Garrick, 1982 Biology of Sharks and Their Relatives Jeffrey C. Carrier, Colin A. Simpfendorfer, Michael R. Heithaus, Kara E. Yopak, 2022-06-08 Biology of Sharks and Their Relatives is an award winning and groundbreaking exploration of the fundamental elements of the taxonomy systematics physiology and ecology of sharks skates rays and chimera This edition presents current research as well as traditional models to provide future researchers with solid historical foundations in shark research as well as presenting current trends from which to develop new frontiers in their own work Traditional areas of study such as age and growth reproduction taxonomy and systematics sensory biology and ecology are updated with contemporary research that incorporates emerging techniques including molecular genetics exploratory techniques in artificial insemination and the rapidly expanding fields of satellite tracking remote sensing accelerometry and imaging With two new editors and 90 contributors from the US UK South Africa Portugal France Canada New Zealand Australia India Palau United Arab Emirates Micronesia Sweden Argentina Indonesia Cameroon and the Netherlands this third edition is the most global and comprehensive yet It adds six new chapters representing extensive studies of health stress disease and pathology and social structure and continues to explore elasmobranch ecological roles and interactions with their habitats The book concludes with a comprehensive review of conservation policies management and strategies as well as consideration of the potential effects of impending climate change Presenting cohesive and integrated coverage of key topics and discussing technological advances used in modern shark research this revised edition offers a well rounded picture for students and researchers Shark Richard Ellis, 2012-04-17 The sharks ancient or modern real or imaginary have always been with us and will probably remain with us forever They appear not only in movies and literature but in countless permutations of size shape and materials permeating our daily lives with their silent menace In a sense humans live in a world replete with sharks not vice versa Thus Richard Ellis sets about chronicling and debunking the myths of sharks throughout history From 18th century art to the phenomena of JAWS the shark has remained the indomitable aggressor of the deep the last demon of humankind The image of the shark and the fear it inspires infiltrates our daily lives with its mythical power and strength But it is not man who should fear the shark Our need to dominate these predators is destroying them and their habitat Through hundreds of full color images Ellis proves the necessity of preserving these majestic creatures As curator of the Ft Lauderdale Museum of Art s exhibition entitled Shark debuting May 2012 Ellis adeptly turns these sleek efficient hunters from monsters of the deep into rare beautiful forces of nature
