

The background of the book cover is a close-up photograph of a garden. It features several thistle heads in various stages of development, some fully formed and others as buds. The thistles have green, serrated leaves and light-colored, spiky heads. Interspersed among the thistles are long, thin blades of grass that curve and sweep across the frame, adding a sense of movement and texture. The lighting is soft, highlighting the intricate details of the plants.
