Copeland, Uno Chiyo, 1992-06-01 Fashion ingenue magazine editor kimono designer femme fatale prize winning writer Uno Chiyo has become one of twentieth century Japan s most accomplished and celebrated women In this two part volume Rebecca L

Copeland offers Western readers a fascinating portrait of Uno's life along with translations of three of her distinctive works of short fiction. Part One depicts Uno's sometimes turbulent passage from obscurity in a small village to national literary prominence. There are the early years under her father's stern tutelage, the first scandalous failed romance which cost her her job as a schoolteacher, her apprenticeship at Enrakuken, the coffee shop of the literary elite whose ranks she later joined as a resident of the Magome Literati Village, her series of passionate and troubled relationships and marriages. Throughout Dr. Copeland focuses on the evolution of Uno's art and discusses her major works, paying special attention to the effect being female had on Uno's development as a writer. The three stories in Part Two are examples of Uno's work at its finest. The Puppet Maker (1942), a much admired reflection on art and life, describes an encounter with a venerable carver of puppets. The Sound of the Wind (1969) is the tale of a wife at the turn of the century who willingly denies her own needs. This Powder Box (1966) shows a progressive career woman coming to terms with an old love affair. At once compelling and lyrical, the stories are a masterful interpretation of tradition of women and of self-fulfillment. The Sound of the Wind: The Life and Works of Uno Chiyo will engage both specialists and general readers interested in twentieth-century Japan literature and women's issues.

Temple Bar George Augustus Sala, Edmund Yates, 1896 Temple Bar, 1896 Whispers of His Movement Gina Gallagher, 2013-09-23. There is nothing more intimidating than a full mind and an empty page. It is wonderful to notice things to be aware to ponder as you go about your day. The thoughts bubble over and fill every cranial crevice. There is a desperate need to deposit them somewhere. So in that desperation Whispers Of His Movement was born. I like the fact that it was birthed in desperation because that is what I am. I am desperate and in need of God's amazing grace. The Whispers Of His Movement, the seemingly silent imperceptible Sovereign moments that happen each day, the ones we often miss in our busyness and self-absorption. Journey with me as He whispers. Gina Gallagher is a woman with a heart for God and all He has for her and us. She shares with honesty and insight how God fits into real life and enriches every day. Gayle Roper www.widowsjourney.com. The Lord graced me with the gift of fellowship with Gina Gallagher many years ago. She is the Proverbs 31 woman serving our Lord today. Her tender love for the Lord and for others is a divine gift. While we live many states and miles apart, one day on the phone she shared about the Father's whispers in her daily life. Whispers of His Movement was birthed in her heart, then I always knew she should write from her walk with the Lord, taking His teaching onto others. May your day be extra blessed to hear these whispers from Abba Father too.
