

History of The Sheboygan Chair Company

The Sheboygan Chair Company is proud to be numbered among the first furniture factories established in the City of Sheboygan. The Company originated in 1868 as the Morse Bending Company engaged in the manufacture of ox yokes and other wooden articles. The following year the Company incorporated as the Sheboygan Manufacturing Company and a new factory was built for the manufacture of chairs for commercial purposes.

In 1883 fire destroyed the original frame buildings and three-story brick buildings were erected.

In 1888 the business was incorporated under the name of SHEBOYGAN CHAIR COMPANY and at that time the late William Braasch and Thomas McNeill assumed management of the Company.

In 1942 the SHEBOYGAN CHAIR COMPANY was sold to the Eugene J. Hynes Corporation. The present officers are: Eugene J. Hynes, President; James E. Cartmell and Harry McNeill, Vice-Presidents; William F. McKee, Secretary and Treasurer; Joseph Francis, Assistant Treasurer.

Since the founding of this Company, 78 years ago, our country has been thru four wars and during World War II a very large percentage of our production was for Government requirements. Our peace-time chairs for homes, offices, schools and institutions are sold thru approximately 6,000 dealers distributed throughout the United States. At the present time approximately 225 workers and craftsmen are employed.
