of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction Arthur M. Saltzman, 2016-11-11 In Designs of Darkness Arthur M. Saltzman examines some of the ways in which fiction has traditionally conspired to promote a goal oriented vision of the work of art and explores the ways in which postmodern or postrealist fiction consistently and unavoidably subverts the clarity of this vision Offering readings of works by well known authors including Barthelme Doctorow DeLillo and Hakes as well as works by lesser known writers Auster Gangemi Saltzman concentrates on the breakdown of epiphany in recent fiction both as philosophical motive and as structural foundation In contemporary fiction Saltzman contends ambiguities blossom far beyond our capacities to stabilize summarize or restore them to sense The old rules of the game in which a reader looking for truth can expect some sort of satisfactory resolution no longer apply Literature now comes out of the answerless Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction is a valuable new resource for scholars and students of contemporary literature

The Rapture Exposed Barbara R. Rossing, 2007-03-30 The idea of The Rapture the return of Christ to rescue and deliver Christians off the earth is an extremely popular interpretation of the Bible s Book of Revelation and a jumping off point for the best selling Left Behind series of books This interpretation based on a psychology of fear and destruction guides the daily acts of thousands if not millions of people worldwide In The Rapture Exposed Barbara Rossing argues that this script for the world s future is nothing more than a disingenuous distortion of the Bible The truth Rossing argues is that Revelation offers a vision of God s healing love for the world The Rapture Exposed reclaims Christianity from fundamentalists destructive reading of the biblical story and back into God s beloved community

Immediacy Anna Kornbluh, 2024-01-30 Why speed flow and direct expression now dominate cultural style Contemporary cultural style boosts transparency and instantaneity These are values absorbed from our current economic conditions of disintermediation cutting out the middleman Like Uber but for art Immediacy names this style to make sense of what we lose when the contradictions of twenty first century capitalism demand that aesthetics negate mediation Surging realness as an aesthetic program synchs with the economic imperative to intensify circulation when production stagnates Flow is the ultimate twenty first century buzzword but speedy circulation grinds art down to the nub And the bad news is that political turmoil and social challenges require more mediation Collective will inspiring ideas and deliberate construction are the only way out but our dominant style forgoes them Considering original streaming TV popular literature artworld trends and academic theories Immediacy explains the recent obsession with immersion and today s intolerance of representation and points to alternative forms in photography TV novels and constructive theory that prioritize distance impersonality and big ideas instead

Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Renée Hulan,2002 In Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Ren e Hulan disputes the notion that the north is a source of distinct collective identity for Canadians Through a synthesis of critical historical and theoretical approaches to northern subjects in literary studies she challenges the epistemology used to support this idea By investigating mutually dependent categories of identity in literature that depicts northern peoples and places Hulan provides a descriptive account of representative genres in which the north figures as a central theme including autobiography adventure narrative ethnography fiction poetry and travel writing She considers each of these diverse genres in terms of the way it explains the cultural identity of a nation formed from the settlement of immigrant peoples on the lands of dispossessed indigenous peoples Reading against the background of contemporary ethnographic literary and cultural theory Hulan maintains that the collective Canadian identity idealized in many works representing the north does not occur naturally but is artificially constructed in terms of characteristics inflected by historically contingent ideas of gender and race such as self sufficiency independence and endurance and that these characteristics are evoked to justify the nationhood of the Canadian state
