is neglected by her own children and lovingly cared for by a hired attendant from the home health care agency Although her illness forces her to forget a lot of things she gives her attendant something that is unforgettable A man who is suffering from congestive heart failure has had several surgeries and the doctors have given him little hope of much longer to live He tries to live doing things he loves to do After several attempts he finally gets an attendant who he can trust while he takes his much loved swim Unfortunately something he loves to do is what kills him All of the stories are different life like scenarios of every day life in the home health care industry Scripting Death Mara Buchbinder,2021-05-04 How the legalization of assisted dying is changing our lives Over the past five years medical aid in dying also known as assisted suicide has expanded rapidly in the United States and is now legally available to one in five Americans This growing social and political movement heralds the possibility of a new era of choice in dying Yet very little is publicly known about how medical aid in dying laws affect ordinary citizens once they are put into practice Sociological studies of new health policies have repeatedly demonstrated that the realities often fall short of advocacy visions raising questions about how much choice and control aid in dying actually affords Scripting Death chronicles two years of ethnographic research documenting the implementation of Vermont's 2013 Patient Choice and Control at End of Life Act Author Mara Buchbinder weaves together stories collected from patients caregivers health care providers activists and legislators to illustrate how they navigate aid in dying as a new medical frontier in the aftermath of legalization Scripting Death explains how medical aid in dying works what motivates people to pursue it and ultimately why upholding the right to die is very different from ensuring access to this life ending procedure This unprecedented in depth account uses the case of assisted death as an entry point into ongoing cultural conversations about the changing landscape of death and dying in the United States Adolescents and Their Families Stuart T. Hauser,Sally Isbell Powers,Gil G. Noam,1991 This book examines the process of ego development in adolescence It explores the diverse ways in which mothers and fathers subtly direct their teenagers on to one of the four main paths through adolescence and facilitate or impede their development and the equally diverse ways in which teenager's interactions with their parents may affect the parents Throughout choices of real children and parents are presented some happy and successful others troubled The book is aimed at those who work professionally with adolescents and their families

Tagwira, 2007-06-15 The Uncertainty of Hope by Valerie Tagwira a novel which Charles Mungoshi calls an astonishing debut Through the various and complex lives of Onai Moyo a market woman and responsible mother of three children and her best friend Katy Nguni a vendor and black market currency dealer we are given an insight into the challenges that face those who only survive by their wits their labour and their mutual support In doing so Tagwira aptly captures how precarious the future is for the inhabitants of Mbare Zimbabwe in 2005 The story of these two close friends is situated in a high density suburb However the author also introduces a much wider cross section of Zimbabwean society Tom Sibanda a young business man and farmer his girlfriend Faith a law student Tom's sister Emily a health professional and Mawaya the ostensible beggar With depth and sensitivity Tagwira pulls these many threads into a densely woven novel that provides us with some of the many faces of contemporary Zimbabwe      A Day in the Death of Joe Egg Peter Nichols, 1967 The play centres on a British couple Bri and Sheila who are struggling to save their marriage whilst trying to raise their only child a small girl named Josephine who has cerebral palsy She uses a wheelchair and is nonverbal which her parents see as unable to communicate Caring for her has occupied nearly every moment of her parents' lives since her birth taking a heavy toll on their marriage Sheila gives Josephine as much of a life as she can while Bri wants the child institutionalised and has begun to entertain chilling fantasies of killing himself and Josephine      Dying Well John Wyatt, 2018-06-21 We cannot choreograph our own death but we can die well This is a book for those who are facing death It is also for their relatives friends and carers John Wyatt looks at recent trends in dying He examines the art of dying a Christian tradition from the past We see opportunities for dying well and faithfully real world examples of personal growth and instances of reconciliation and personal healing in relationships On the other hand there are also challenges to face the fears and temptations that dying can bring We learn from Jesus' example as we focus on his words from the cross The wonderful news is that we can look forward to a sure and steadfast hope the amazing hope of resurrection and its implications for our lives today      A Love Too Strong To Die Hebert

Centrone, Elizabeth Benton, 2003-07 Adventurer at heart Hebert Centrone has lived on the edge literally On his journey through life he never gave up on love and kept searching for his soul mate An eyewitness to glory terror and tragedy he has braved discrimination and bitter cold snow storms to become what his friends call an extraordinary mountaineer He hasn't told his story in his own words until now Among the most intrepid and fearless climbers Hebert Centrone has traveled from coast to coast in search of fresh challenges and new heights to conquer Along the way he has accumulated an extraordinary list of experiences including an excruciating night without a tent in a shallow snow cave With the triumphs came harrowing incidents of suffering and many humiliating situations at the hand of his climbing partner This is just not the end but the very beginning of a journey full of great expectations      Saints In Sussex. Poems and Plays by Sheila Kaye-Smith Sheila Kaye-Smith,2022-07-21 Sheila Kaye Smith's Saints In Sussex Poems and Plays revives the bucolic charm of Sussex through a tapestry of literary devotion encapsulating the essence of spiritual and ecclesiastical heritage in its verses. The compilation celebrates various saints and notable religious observances immersing readers in a rhythmic exploration of Christian lore intertwined with the pastoral beauty of the English countryside. Kaye Smith's prose is steeped in a reverence for traditional forms yet her articulation carries a modern resonance that positions her work within a continuum of English literature that elegy the natural world and its spiritual dialogues. Sheila Kaye Smith, a daughter of rural Sussex, authored numerous novels that reflect upon the intimate dynamics of countryside life, and it is this profound connection with her native soil that illuminates her poetry. Akin to her narrative prose, Kaye Smith's poems and plays in Saints In Sussex emanate from a personal geography that is as much internal as it is external, reflecting upon the deep vestiges of faith that have historically shaped the sensibilities of Sussex inhabitants. Recommended for readers enamored with the English pastoral genre, Saints In Sussex extends an invitation to delve into a world where the sacred and the bucolic are elegantly interwoven. The text is ideal for those who appreciate literary works that not only pay homage to religious traditions but also encapsulate the spirit of a place through evocative verse. Kaye Smith's collection stands as a testament to the enduring resonance of faith, folklore, and the undulating English landscape in literary expression. When Professionals Weep Renee S. Katz, Therese A.

Johnson,2016-01-22 When Professionals Weep speaks to the humbling and often transformational moments that clinicians experience in their careers as caregivers and healers—moments when it is often hard to separate the influence of our own emotional responses and worldviews from the patient's or family's. When Professionals Weep addresses these poignant moments when the professional's personal experiences with trauma, illness, death, and loss can subtly, often stealthily, surface and affect the helping process. This edition, like the first, both validates clinicians' experiences and also helps them process and productively address compassion fatigue, burnout, and secondary traumatic stress. New material in the second edition includes increased emphasis on the burgeoning fields of hospice and palliative care, organizational countertransference, mindfulness, and compassionate practice. It includes thought-provoking cases, self-assessments, and exercises that can be used on an individual, dyadic, or group basis. This volume is an invaluable handbook for practitioners in the fields of medicine, mental health, social work, nursing, chaplaincy, the allied health sciences, psychology, and psychiatry. A Seeker's Journey into Sacred Time and Space David Trimble,2025-02-11

How do we find hope in the world when hatred, injustice, war, and climate change threaten our very survival? The author's journey as a social justice activist and spiritual seeker offers inspiration for readers to build their own practices of hope. The author challenges the spiritual poverty of materialist individualism, which threatens all life on the planet by the actions of its dominant species. A vision of transforming global culture emerges from the memoir's stories of love, loss, yearning, and redemption. Activism and spiritual search converge in the vision of a culture grounded in the universality of human spirituality, a vision that does not descend into religious particularism. The author encourages readers to build alliances across differences to bring forth our common fundamental spiritual legacy of love justice gratitude and awe      Die or Make Die Hugh Cameron, Edna Quammie, 2021-10-05 A noir novel of love intrigue and violence amid the declining and increasingly chaotic Western world Lauren a professional assassin now married and with a child attempts to walk away from her previous life Unfortunately a series of events forces her to use her old skills again and again Qian leader of a triad based in Hong Kong one of her previous employers seeking to separate Vancouver from Canada to create an independent country like Singapore forces her to carry out further assignments Jazz a Toronto born budding artist was taken prisoner in the UK and forced to be a sex slave in the Middle East Rescued by Qian's son Jazz is now her daughter in law She finds herself playing an increasing role leading to Vancouver's independence The tensions and mistrust among these three women gradually worsens with time Who will die or make die      The Good Die Twice Lee Driver, 2000-09 Chase Dagger is a private detective with no past a sometime fiancée a scarlet macaw with a photographic memory and a beautiful assistant with the ability to shapeshift Dagger has a knack for attracting the most unusual cases So when a client informs him he received a call from his wife the detective isn't surprised to learn that the wife has been dead for five years
