Long Range Deserter Henry Chesham, 1986 Long Range Deserter David Bingley, 1997 Military Deserters United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Armed Services. Subcommittee on Treatment of Deserters from Military Service, 1968 A German Deserter's War Experience, 1917 Broken Homes: A Study of Family Desertion and its Social Treatment Joanna C. Colcord, 2022-09-16

Joanna C Colcord's Broken Homes: A Study of Family Desertion and its Social Treatment is a seminal work that meticulously examines the multifaceted issue of family desertion. Through a blend of case studies, statistical analyses, and sociological insights, Colcord delves into the causes, consequences, and societal responses to this prevalent yet often overlooked social phenomenon. Her narrative is both compassionate and critical, offering a window into the lives affected by abandonment and the era's social policy frameworks. The book is a vital artifact in the literary continuum of social work, reflecting the progressive ambition of early 20th-century reforms within its rich historical context. As a pioneering social worker and a director at the Russell Sage Foundation, Joanna C Colcord's professional experience deeply informs her exploration in Broken Homes. Her passion for social justice and her first-hand encounters with the plight of disintegrated families lend authenticity and depth to her analysis. Colcord's voice echoes the cries for reform and understanding in an age where industrialization and urbanization were transforming the American family landscape. Scholars, policymakers, and anyone interested in the history of social welfare will find Broken Homes both enlightening and thought-provoking. Colcord's work offers vital lessons about the social constructions of family and the enduring impact of desertion on individuals and communities. It stands as a testimony to the complexities of family dynamics and an admonition for continual progress in social support systems. This book not only contributes to historical scholarship but also serves as a call to action for current and future generations to address the persistent challenges surrounding family cohesion and societal support mechanisms.

No Soap, No Pay, Diarrhea, Dysentery & Desertion Jeff Toalson, 2006-08-18

No Soap No Pay Diarrhea Dysentery Desertion is a groundbreaking study of life during the final sixteen months of the Confederacy Civil War. Studies normally focus on military battles, campaigns, generals, and politicians, with the common Confederate soldier and Southern civilians receiving only token mention. Using personal accounts from more than two hundred—seventy soldiers, farmers, clerks, surgeons, sailors, chaplains, farm girls, nurses, nuns, merchants, teachers, and wives—author Jeff Toalson has created a compilation that is remarkable in its simplicity and stunning in its scope. These soldiers and civilians wrote remarkable letters and kept astonishing diaries and journals. They discussed disease, slavery, inflation, religion, desertion, blockade running, and their never-ending hope that the war would be over before their loved ones died. As in all wars, these are the people who suffer the most, and glory is hard to find amid lice, dysentery, starvation, and death. A significant contribution to Civil War literature, No Soap No Pay Diarrhea Dysentery Desertion will open vistas to a side of the war with which most are only mildly familiar. The words of these individuals are an honest, powerful, and poetic portrayal of the war's effect on their lives. A

Remembering and Disremembering the Dead Floris Tomasini,2017-08-01 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 licence This book is a multidisciplinary work that investigates the notion of posthumous harm over time The question what is and when is death affects how we understand the possibility of posthumous harm and redemption Whilst it is impossible to hurt the dead it is possible to harm the wishes beliefs and memories of persons that once lived In this way this book highlights the vulnerability of the dead and makes connections to a historical oeuvre to add critical value to similar concepts in history that are overlooked by most philosophers There is a long historical view of case studies that illustrate the conceptual character of posthumous punishment that is dissection and gibbeting of the criminal corpse after the Murder Act 1752 and those shot at dawn during the First World War A long historical view is also taken of posthumous harm that is body snatching in the late Georgian period and organ snatching at Alder Hey in the 1990s
