With the twentieth century arrived the first electric tramcars in London Thirty years later the first trolley buses arrived along with a fleet of new trams that were the most modern of their day This era was one of rapid change rich in achievement and personalities Among the more colourful of the undertakings involved was London United which introduced the first public service of electric tramcars in 1901 and became one of the predecessors of the present London Transport This is a study of this eventful period relating the development of the tramway and trolleybus system to the changing social background It contains a wealth of hitherto unpublished material both factual and anecdotal taken from contemporary newspaper and other accounts and a remarkable collection of illustrations 48 pages in all It should be of interest not only to the transport enthusiast but also to the general reader interested in social history This book was first published in 1971 Catland Kathryn Hughes,2024-06-04 In Catland Kathryn Hughes chronicles the cat craze of the early twentieth century through the life and career of Louis Wain Wain's anthropomorphic drawings of cats in top hats falling in love sipping champagne golfing driving cars and piloting planes are some of the most instantly recognizable images from the era His round faced fluffy characters established the prototype for the modern cat which cat fanciers were busily trying to achieve using their newfound knowledge of the latest scientific breeding techniques Despite being a household name Wain endured multiple bankruptcies and mental breakdowns spending his last fifteen years in an asylum drawing abstract and multicolored felines But it was his ubiquitous anthropomorphic cats that helped usher the formerly reviled creatures into homes across Europe
