Mangoes Or Bananas? Yung Hwa,1997 Mission in the Spirit Julie C. Ma,Wonsuk Ma,2010 The Holy Spirit Movement in Korea Young-Hoon Lee,2009 This book traces the historical and theological development of the Holy Spirit in Korea through six successive periods Handbook of Theological Education in World Christianity Dietrich Werner,David Esterline,Namsoon Kang,Joshva Raja,2010-11-19 The Handbook of Theological Education in World Christianity is the first attempt to map and analyze developments in theological education on a global scale This volume with contributions from 98 leaders in theological education from around the world provides a comprehensive introduction to the major themes and contexts in the international discourse on theological education surveys of the issues and challenges faced in different regions and introductory essays on the developments in the major denominational families in World Christianity The editors are Dietrich Werner World Council of Churches Geneva David Esterline McCormick Theological Seminary Chicago Namsoon Kang Brite Divinity School Fort Worth and Joshva Raja Queen s Foundation Birmingham Edinburgh 2010 Kirsteen Kim,Andrew Anderson,2011 Revisioning Christian Unity Huibert van Beek,2009 Jesus and the Incarnation David Emmanuel Singh,2011 Jesus and the Incarnation Reflections of Christians from Islamic Contexts In the dialogues of Christians with Muslims nothing is more fundamental than the Cross the Incarnation and the Resurrection of Jesus An open and honest conversation on these is a necessity as Christians all over the world meet with Muslims on a daily basis Building on the volume on the Cross published in 2009 this book contains voices of Christians living in various Islamic contexts and reflecting on the Incarnation of Jesus The aim of these reflections is constructive and the hope is that the papers weaved around the notion of the Word will not only promote dialogue among Christians on the roles of the Person and the Book but also create a positive environment for their conversations with Muslim neighbors Christianity and Education David Emmanuel Singh,Bernard C. Farr,2011 Contextual Missiology of the Spirit Wessly Lukose,2013-01-01 This book explores the identity context and features of Pentecostalism in Rajasthan India as well as the internal and external issues facing Pentecostals It argues for an indigenous origin of Pentecostalism in Rajasthan as it is a product of local Spirit revivals in the existing churches and the missionary activities of Indian Pentecostals It also reveals that both the intra church as well as extra church issues place Pentecostals in a missio ethical dilemma The book aims to suggest a contextual missiology of the Spirit as a new model of contextual missiology from a Pentecostal perspective It is presented as a glocal ecumenical transformational and public missiology Searching for Heaven in the Real World Kathryn Ann Kraft,2013-02-24 Searching for Heaven in the Real World A Sociological Discussion of Conversion in the Arab World While adjusting to a new identity is akin to adjusting to a new set of skin even more difficult is realising that this new skin may not be as comfortable or as pleasant as the old one In Searching for Heaven in the Real World Kathryn Kraft explores the breadth of psychological and societal issues faced by Arab Muslims after making a decision to adopt a faith in Christ or Christianity investigating some of the most surprising and significant challenges new believers face Arab Muslims arrive at a point of new faith with great expectations With such high hopes for what they will experience in their new identity they are bound to encounter a reality that is different They need to invest a great deal of emotional energy in addressing their expectations and what they actually encounter Even so those who stay the course of faith usually hold on to their dreams believing that heaven is not only for the afterlife but it is for the real world as well Leadership in a Slum Alan R. Johnson,2009 In Leadership in a Slum Johnson looks at leadership in the Thai social context from a different angle than traditional studies which measure well educated Thais on leadership scales derived in the West Seeking a cultural account of social influence processes he turns to those who have been left behind in the race to participate in a globalizing world the urban poor Using both systematic data collection and participant observation he develops a culturally preferred model as well as a set of models based in Thai concepts that reflect on the ground realities Johnson also examines the community state relationship and finds that in the face of state power that brings both development and the forces of eviction the community and its leaders are not passive in this relationship but modify reject or resist state views in their various forms He concludes by looking at the implications of his anthropological approach for those who are involved in leadership training in Thai settings and beyond This work challenges the dominance of the patron client rubric for understanding all forms of Thai leadership and offers an alternative view for understanding leadership rooted in local social systems to approaches that assume the universal applicability of leadership research findings across all cultural settings

Edinburgh 2010 David A. Kerr,Kenneth R. Ross,2010-04-01 The World Missionary Conference held at Edinburgh in 1910 ranks among the most influential and widely remembered events in Christian history Though the outcomes of the Conference have differed in many ways from the expectations of its participants after a century its momentous significance is clearer than ever While the missionary movement went into decline from its work emerged a world church with deep roots and vigorous expression on every continent As the centenary of the Conference approaches The time is ripe to examine its meaning in light of the past century And The questions facing Christian witness today This book is the first to systematically examine the eight Commissions which reported to Edinburgh 1910 and gave the conference much of its substance and enduring value it will deepen and extend the reflection being stimulated by the upcoming centenary and will kindle the missionary imagination for 2010 and beyond

Nigeria's Christian Revolution Richard Burgess,2008 Nigeria has become the arena of one of the most remarkable religious movements of recent times reflecting the shift in the global center of Christianity from the North to the South This book tells the story of one sector of this movement from its root in the Nigerian civil war to the turn of the new millenium It describes a revival that occurred among the Igbo people of Eastern Nigeria and the new Pentecostal churches it generated and documents the changes that have occurred as the movement has responded to global flows and local demands As such it explores the nature of revivalist and Pentecostal experience but does so against the backdrop of local socio political and economic developments such as decolonization and civil war as well broader processes such as modernization and globalization

Foundations for Mission Emma Wild-Wood, Peniel Rajkumar, 2013-01-11 This volume provides an important resource for those wishing to gain an overview of significant issues in contemporary missiology whilst understanding how they are applied in particular contexts Contributors from across the globe and from different Christian traditions explore foundations for mission The chapters examine in what ways experience the Bible and theology are foundational for mission and how they together inform the missional thought of different traditions The book also raises questions about the continued use of foundations as a helpful metaphor mission reflection and impetus Graduate students and scholars surveying the field will find this a useful and accessible way to understand changing trends within mission studies

Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot, 2024-12-23 Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider's role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development

Theology and the Future Trevor Cairney, David Starling, 2014-07-31 Theology was once queen of the sciences the integrating centre of Christendom's conceptual universe In our own time the very idea of systematic theology is frequently called into question derided as an arcane and superstitious pseudo discipline Even within the church it is commonly disregarded in favour of unreflective piety and pragmatism At the same time the southward shift in world Christianity's centre of gravity prompts crucial questions about the future form and content of theology Within this context Theology and the Future offers a case for the continuing viability of theology exploring how it might adapt to changing circumstances and discussing its implications for how we are to imagine and help shape our shared human future Beginning with the question of God this book explores what might be meant by the future of God and what its implications are for Christian theology Chapters follow on the location of theology in global Christianity the church and the academy and on its sources and method The second half of the book explores a wide variety of dimensions of the human future that theology might address and illuminate The essays bring together a mix of specialist theologians and interdisciplinary thinkers to support the assertion that there can be no more critical endeavor to the future than understanding God and all things in relationship to him
