Qur'ān Translation as a Modern Phenomenon El-Hussein A.Y. Aly,2023-09-25 It is a well established fact nowadays that modernity impacts Islam but there has not been much focus on how modernity impacts the Qur n the foundational text of Islam and the verbatim word of God This book argues that the early Muslim Qur n translations into English are attempts to reconcile the Qur n with modernity by producing translations that encompass modern concepts and interpretations of the Qur n Are these modern concepts and interpretations valid or they alter the word of God This is the main question that the book attempts to answer particularly that these early translations have affected and still affect Qur n translation The Holy Quran Mohamed Hani,2022-02-20 In the Qur an a pious Muslim hears God s voice guiding and encouraging consoling and reproaching promising the righteous mercy and eternal bliss while threatening the wicked with wrath and eternal

English Translation of the Holy Quran Maulana Muhammad Ali, 2011-01-19 Language updated and notes abridged by the Editor The English translation of the Holy Quran with extensive explanatory footnotes by Maulana Muhammad Ali d 1951 was first published in 1917 Due to changes in the usage and teaching of English in the second half of the twentieth century such a reader today is much less familiar with certain forms and styles of literary expression used in the translation than was the case with previous generations To bring the language closer to the general readership it became necessary to replace some expressions by more modern forms This has been my aim in producing the present updated version of the translation

New Theory of the Holy Qur'an Translation: A Textbook for Advanced University Students of Linguistics and Translation Ali Alhaj, 2015-06 Translation strategies are the procedures employed by the translator to attempt a solution to the multifarious baffling problems with which translation is indubitably replete Malone 1988 p 78 defines translation The steps selected from a consciously known range of potential procedures taken to solve a translation problem which has been consciously detected and resulting in a consciously applied solution While some strategies are helpful others turn out to be of little avail It follows then that the translator has to sort out the wheat from the chaff in pursuit of a good translation Here the translator may utilize particular strategies in accordance with the method anticipated in the course of translation i e target orientedness or source orientedness Faced with differences in the extralinguistic reality of the two cultures or list lexical mapping the translator tries to reconcile them by relying on the following procedures borrowing definition literal translation substitution lexical creation omission and addition Three comments that need to be made by the researcher in connection with this list First not all of the procedures achieve cultural transfer in the sense of filling the gap but they all serve the purpose of achieving communicative equivalence in translation For instance substitution and omission certainly do not help to make members of the target culture aware of anything that their culture does not already possess and lexical creation is no more enlightening than the use of the sources language expression unless accompanied by some other procedure that will make the particular extra linguistic feature part of their experiences Second combinations of procedures rather than single procedures are required for optimum transmission of cultural information e g borrowing and definition borrowing and substitution lexical creation and definition Third in planning his her translation strategy the translator does not make a one time decision on how he she will treat unmatched elements of culture rather even if the translator has established an overall order of preferences he she usually makes a new decision for each element and for its each use in an act of communication rather even if he has established an overall order of preferences he usually makes a new decision for each such element and for each use in an act of communication Cohen 1990 p 78 The Quran Ejaz Naqvi MD, Ejaz Naqvi, 2012 This book addresses the key themes of the Quran and answers commonly asked questions in search of finding common ground Who wrote the Quran Who is the God of the Quran What is the Quranic view of the prophets especially Moses and Jesus What does the Quran teach about interfaith relations Does the Quran promote peace and harmony between Muslims and the People of the Book or does it promote violence How does the Quran compare to the Bible on important themes like worshipping God the prophets human rights moral values and fighting for justice and human dignity Does the Quran render women as second class citizens Dispelling major myths The Quran With or Against the Bible systematically analyzes and compares the similarities in the paths of guidance the two scriptures have bestowed upon mankind Publisher's website
