Nature Destiny Of Man Volume 2:

Love Your Enemies Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1994 The author examines the theological bases of just war theory and pacifism especially in the light of the concept of God as that motif illuminates Christian discipleship Differences between the theory of just war and the practice of pacifism are highlighted in the overview of the history of Christian thought on the subject and the inclusiveness of the ideal of the kingdom for pacifism is emphasized The Future of Christian Realism Dallas Gingles, Joshua Mauldin, Rebekah L. Miles, 2023-04-15 In the world's most developed democracies anxiety about the future of democracy is palpable The tension between moral aspiration and moral despair has reached a point of crisis Christian realism arose during a similar time of crisis when Reinhold Niebuhr used the insights of the Christian tradition to interpret the clash between democracy and totalitarianism Beginning with Robin Lovin's account of Christian realism as a nuanced blend of theological moral and political realisms The Future of Christian Realism addresses fundamental topics in theology ethics and politics The contributors come from different traditions span five continents and together present a case for the continuing relevance of Christian realism By paying close attention to many of the most pressing moral challenges facing societies today the authors illustrate and evaluate the enduring relevance of Christian realism Christian Theology, Volume Two Thomas N. Finger, 2020-03-09 This is one of the first systematic theologies written from a believer's church chiefly an Anabaptist Mennonite perspective Dr Finger develops his themes throughout the volume in careful dialogue with Reformed Lutheran Roman Catholic and other historic approaches The eschatological approach taken by Finger does not represent a fixation on future events Rather it represents a method of inquiry based on the early Christian conviction that the last things had already occurred through Jesus even though their effects were not yet fully realized Chief among these were the resurrection of the dead the outpouring of the Spirit the coming of God's kingdom and the defeat of the powers of evil After outlining this vantage point Volume I considered eschatology revelation and the work of Christ in its light Volume II begins with anthropology Jesus human work provides the norm for authentic human being Justification comes next and is considered as the eschatological revelation and actualization of God's righteousness through the faithfulness of Jesus Christ After treating the dynamics of personal sanctification Dr Finger explores the context within which it is pursued the church His ecclesiology begins with mission including its approach to non-Christian religions and the sociopolitical realm Volume II ends where most systematic theologies begin with God including the humanity and deity of Jesus Christ Thomas N Finger has undertaken an important task that is rarely attempted the production of a constructive systematic theology informed by judicious dialogue with current biblical scholarship Finger's methodological decision to adopt an eschatological approach enables him to work formally as well as materially from within a perspective shaped by the NT writers his innovative organization of the loci of Christian doctrine with its emphasis on the church as a community of believers living out the tensions between Christ's resurrection and Parousia is a direct result of taking the NT seriously Particularly noteworthy is his exposition of the doctrine of justification in the light of recent paradigm shifts in Pauline studies Finger's book is a productive and edifying work for all who care about the ongoing conversation between Scripture and systematics Richard Hays Duke Divinity School Thomas N Finger has chosen an approach to the systematic presentation of Christian Theology which I also have taken since the publication of my Theology of Hope in 1964 He begins with the goal with eschatology With that goal in mind a new light is cast on every single doctrine of Christian theology the light of redemption and the work of the theologian becomes a labor of hope This is a theology of the way With the kingdom of God kept steadily in view it becomes an invitation to walk the way of Jesus Tom Finger's theological prospectus makes a brilliant contribution to ecumenical theological dialogue from the Anabaptist tradition He offers an eschatologically oriented theology for which I can only congratulate him Jürgen Moltmann Professor of Theology University of Tübingen This volume is not only a contribution to the contemporary discussions in systematic theology It is also an important ecumenical breakthrough The Anabaptist tradition stands as an important dialogue partner in the quest for a common ground in the Christian faith Finger approaches the biblical faith from an eschatological viewpoint that is faithful to the Anabaptist tradition but in dialogue with Roman Catholic classical Protestant and contemporary scholars in both of these traditions He has begun a substantive conversation that will be important into the twenty first century Jeffrey Gros Former Director of the Commission on Faith Order National Council of Christian Churches USA

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah Miles, 2001 Miles contends that an increasingly radical feminist emphasis on divine immanence and human boundedness has undercut key assumptions upon which feminism rests Niebuhr's realism she believes can be the source of a necessary correction

Reinhold Niebuhr Revisited Daniel F. Rice, 2009-07-10 In 2007 then presidential candidate Barack Obama called Reinhold Niebuhr 1892-1971 his favorite philosopher Reinhold Niebuhr Revisited offers fresh and creative ways of looking at this influential American theologian's views on religion politics and culture through the eyes of diverse respected scholars

Responsibility, Chastisement and Restoration Ronald Laldinsuah, 2015-05-14 Many Old Testament scholars have focused their studies of justice on the eighth century BC prophets Isaiah Amos and Micah giving little or no attention to Hosea Neglect of Hosea in relation to justice arises from the common notion that he was a prophet of love and although some studies concede that parts of the book deal with justice it is often overlooked or given secondary importance to other concerns and themes In this publication Ronald Laldinsuah addresses this misconception by demonstrating that Hosea was indeed a prophet of justice Through careful analysis of the text as well as observing both the biblical concept and the secular notions of justice it is observed that justice must perpetuate right and true relationships In relational justice we see the inseparable relationship among humans and between humans and God emphasising Hosea's message of responsibility chastisement and restoration

Prophetic Realism Ronald Stone, 2005-11-07 After September 11 2001 ordinary citizens faced a new world ruled by political and religious machinations against the threat of terrorism While political leaders pursued a policy of militarism many religious leaders advocated pacifism Ronald H Stone advocates a middle road between these two extremes what he calls prophetic realism Taking up Reinhold Niebuhr s notion of Christian realism Stone argues that our current situation calls for hard answers to hard questions Stone offers compelling evidence that Jesus provides the prophetic model of our interaction with our enemies This book will change people s minds about the relationship of religion and politics in the contemporary world

God's Patience and our Work Ben Fulford, 2024-02-28 In God s Patience and our Work Ben Fulford argues that Hans Frei s theology and ethics offers unheralded but valuable resources for thinking about the social and political engagement of Christian communities in pluralistic societies in light of hope in Jesus Christ He shows how Frei s project of recovering the conditions for and shape of a generous orthodoxy runs through his work offering broad flexible vision of Christian identity ethical responsibility and humanistic witness focused in the person and presence of Jesus Christ In dialogue with liberation theologies Fulford draws from Frei an account of divine patience and providence to frame hopeful pragmatic Christian participation in work for dignity justice and penultimate reconciliation rooted in new and deeper contextual reading of his work

Christ, Creation, and the Fall Simon R. Watson, 2021-05-03 If the Christian God is creator of all things and revealed in Christ to be compassionate love then how can divine agency in creation be understood considering the Darwinian assertion that biological warfare undergirds natural selection The implications are significant for understanding Christian discipleship and ethics if indeed the human is made in God s image with the capacity for creative or destructive dominion over earthly life Gen 1 26 To approach this challenge Simon R Watson turns to Philip Hefner s The Human Factor 1993 which identifies the human as created co creator to investigate themes of freedom and determinism in light of Darwinian evolutionary theory Hefner s argument exploring human purpose from a beneficence discernible in creation invites a re examination of Victorian preoccupations with natural teleology Inspired by Hefner s work Watson places Darwin s The Descent of Man 1871 in conversation with historical and contemporary sources from William Paley s Natural Theology 1802 to twenty first century articulations of Wisdom Christology by Denis Edwards and Elizabeth Johnson to argue that theology can offer a framework of meaning to interpret an evolving nature as revelatory of a Christian God when considered through the lens of a suffering Christ and an existentially fallen creation

God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume One Jeff B. Pool, 2009-01-01 This book constitutes the first volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine

Suffering Divine Vulnerability and Creation This study first develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Thus the larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God Through this approach this volume of studies into the Christian symbol of divine suffering then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation God's Wounds Jeff B Pool,2011-07-28

God's Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering Volume I Divine Vulnerability and Creation is the first of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry on the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely The goal is then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God In this first volume the author develops an approach to interpreting the contested claims about the suffering of God Through this approach to the Christian symbol of divine suffering he then investigates the two major presuppositions that the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally hold an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love When fully elaborated these presuppositions reveal the conditions of possibility for divine suffering and divine vulnerability with respect to creation

Readings in Christian Thought Hugh T. Kerr,2010-09-01 Illuminates the history and development of Christian thought by offering selections from the writings of 55 great Christian theologians The volume includes substantial excerpts from notable women theologians and from black and liberation perspectives plus a new section from deceased theologians such as Thomas Merton Martin Luther King Jr and Karl Rahner Each passage is prefaced by detailed introductory comments on the life and thought of each theologian and the significance of his/her work The Modern Theologians David F. Ford,2013-09-23 This popular text has been updated to ensure that it continues to provide a current and comprehensive overview of the main Christian theologies of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Each chapter is written by a leading theologian and gives a clear picture of a particular movement topic or individual New and updated treatments of topics covered in earlier editions with over half the chapters new to this edition or revised by new authors New section singling out six classic theologians of the twentieth century Expanded treatment of the natural sciences gender Roman Catholic theology since Vatican II and African Asian and Evangelical theologies Completely new chapters on spirituality pastoral theology philosophical theology postcolonial biblical interpretation Pentecostal theology Islam and Christian theology Buddhism and Christian theology and theology and film As in previous editions the text opens with a full introduction to modern theology Epilogue discussing the present situation and prospects of Christian theology in the twenty first century Volume 10, Tome II: Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology Jon Stewart, 2016-12-05 Kierkegaard has always enjoyed a rich reception in the fields of theology and religious studies This reception might seem obvious given that he is one of the most important Christian writers of the nineteenth century but Kierkegaard was by no means a straightforward theologian in any traditional sense He had no enduring interest in some of the main fields of theology such as church history or biblical studies and he was strikingly silent on many key Christian dogmas Moreover he harbored a degree of animosity towards the university theologians and churchmen of his own day Despite this he has been a source of inspiration for numerous religious writers from different denominations and traditions Tome II is dedicated to tracing Kierkegaard's influence in Anglophone and Scandinavian Protestant religious thought Kierkegaard has been a provocative force in the English speaking world since the early twentieth century inspiring almost contradictory receptions In Britain before World War I the few literati who were familiar with his work tended to assimilate Kierkegaard to the heroic individualism of Ibsen and Nietzsche In the United States knowledge of Kierkegaard was introduced by Scandinavian immigrants who brought with them a picture of the Dane as much more sympathetic to traditional Christianity The interpretation of Kierkegaard in Britain and America during the early and mid twentieth century generally reflected the sensibilities of the particular theological interpreter Anglican theologians generally found Kierkegaard to be too one sided in his critique of reason and culture while theologians hailing from the Reformed tradition often saw him as an insightful harbinger of neo orthodoxy The second part of Tome II is dedicated to the Kierkegaard reception in Scandinavian theology featuring articles on Norwegian and Swedish theologians influenced by Kierkegaard Early Ecotheology and Joseph Sittler Panu Pihkala, 2017 When did Christians begin to address environmental questions What can be learned from these pioneering thinkers This study reveals that between 1910 and 1954 many theologians called for responsibility towards nature The focal point is the work of Joseph Sittler 1904 1987 an American Lutheran and ecumenical theologian The role of these early ecotheologians is discussed in relation to environmental history and education The findings show that ecotheology was not as strongly separated from other environmentalism as it was after the 1960s Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 12 Subject Religious Studies Environmental Studies Ecotheology Joseph Sittler Remembering Faithfully Forward Barry K. controversial prophets In various life conditions threatening and challenged by sickness and despair herein are eight Niebuhrs faithful wrestlings They bequeath bristling morsels and compelling insights creatively compacted into more than four hundred entries and reference leads for further consideration Thus deeply influenced by the patriarch and matriarch Gustav Sr and Lydia arise Reinhold s steadfast reflections on grace grounded justice and its principles the caringly layered meanings of the love of neighbor and God from his brother H Richard the dedication to render the faith intelligible to postmoderns held by his son Richard Reinhold and the decisive and insightful journalism by in turn his son Gustav Jr on Lincoln being duly lobbied for mercy to indigenous peoples And that s not all the indispensable reminiscences of Reinhold s educator sister Hulda and his wife Ursula as well as the unearthed grace based Serenity Prayer of his daughter Elisabeth corporately express rare gleanings of the Niebuhr clan s virtual school of warm contemplative action

Moral, Believing Animals Christian Smith,2003-07-10 What kind of animals are human beings And how do our visions of the human shape our theories of social action and institutions In Moral Believing Animals Christian Smith advances a creative theory of human persons and culture that offers innovative challenging answers to these and other fundamental questions in sociological cultural and religious theory Smith suggests that human beings have a peculiar set of capacities and proclivities that distinguishes them significantly from other animals on this planet Despite the vast differences in humanity between cultures and across history no matter how differently people narrate their lives and histories there remains an underlying structure of human personhood that helps to order human culture history and narration Drawing on important recent insights in moral philosophy epistemology and narrative studies Smith argues that humans are animals who have an inescapable moral and spiritual dimension They cannot avoid a fundamental moral orientation in life and this says Smith has profound consequences for how sociology must study human beings

Reinhold Niebuhr and John Dewey Daniel F. Rice,1993-01-01 Reinhold Niebuhr and John Dewey frequently have been identified as the most influential American philosophers of their respective times Although their direct contact in print and in political action was marginal their substantive conflict over such issues as religion naturalism the liberal tradition and democracy both reflected and shaped much of America s inner dialogue from 1932 to mid century and beyond In this intriguing book Daniel Rice makes a strong case that although the clash between Niebuhr and Dewey was real and important in a wider context the two shared more insights than either realized
