Worldview and the Academic Disciplines Deane E. D. Downey, Stanley E. Porter, 2009-04-15 This book an edited compilation of twenty nine essays focuses on the difference s that a Christian worldview makes for the disciplines or subject areas normally taught in liberal arts colleges and universities Three initial chapters of introductory material are followed by twenty six essays each dealing with the essential elements or issues in the academic discipline involved These individual essays on each discipline are a unique element of this book These essays also treat some of the specific differences in perspective or procedure that a biblically informed Christian perspective brings to each discipline Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines is intended principally as an introductory textbook in Christian worldview courses for Christian college or university students This volume will also be of interest to Christian students in secular post secondary institutions who may be encountering challenges to their faith both implicit and explicit from peers or professors who assume that holding a strong Christian faith and pursuing a rigorous college or university education are essentially incompatible This book should also be helpful for college and university professors who embrace the Christian faith but whose post secondary academic background because of its secular orientation has left them inadequately prepared to intelligently apply the implications of their faith to their particular academic specialty Such specialists be they professors or upper level graduate students will find the extensive bibliographies of recent scholarship at the end of the individual chapters particularly helpful

The Worldview of the Kingdom Lois Allen, Darrow Miller, 2005 The Church today can be divided into two different understandings of the Kingdom of God The first group views the Kingdom of God as mystical invisible and heavenly These Christians assert that Jesus is Lord of all but his Kingdom does not make a difference Caring in Nursing Classics

The Changing Face of Health Care John Frederic Kilner, Robert David Orr, Judith Allen Shelly, Judy Allen Shelly, 1998 In response to the many changes currently going on in health care this book offers the combined insight and wisdom of a stellar group of scholars and professionals with extensive experience in the health care field The book opens with a look at people s actual experience of health care today from four different perspectives It then addresses foundational questions including the nature of medicine nursing and justice Surveyed next are the changing economics of health care as well as the impact of these changes on such areas as mental health care long term care health care for minorities and legal malpractice The closing section of the book assesses from a Christian perspective available constructive alternatives including creative funding strategies with special attention to the needs of poor persons physician unions and the use of alternative medicine therapies

The New Age Movement and the Biblical Worldview John P. Newport, 1998 John Newport delivers a comprehensive study of the impact of New Age beliefs on contemporary culture and on Christianity itself while also offering an effective biblical antidote to today's worldview crisis After first surveying the historical development of the New Age worldview from ancient times through important tendencies in nineteenth century America to recent Far Eastern influences Newport explores in depth eleven key areas of the New Age worldview and contrasts each area of belief with the traditional biblical worldview
