Managing Future Enterprise Friedrich Glauner,2018-12-18 This book explores new ways for companies to sustain their success by means of viable business models and a values driven culture The point of departure is a value proposition designed to last and grounded in the values espoused and actively practiced by the organization. These values are in turn the product of a values creation process which is essential to any business trying to ensure its viability in the long run. A concise step by step process explains how this process can be introduced to keep companies competitive for and in the future. In subsequent chapters the book describes key challenges for modern management, introduces a paradigm of sustainable management and presents roadmaps to future viability and axioms of viable business management. Active practitioners in executive and operational management roles, research and development, innovation management, human resources, sustainability or process management will benefit from this volume. Given its scope of coverage, the book offers a valuable resource for lecturers and students in business management, economics, law and sustainability related degree courses.

Achieving a Resilient Future for Small States Denny Lewis-Bynoe, 2016-04-01

The Caribbean faces numerous economic, social and environmental challenges with current projections predicting the road ahead to be filled with low levels of growth, high debt and low resilience. In Achieving a Resilient Future for Small States Caribbean 2050, the contributors set out a long term research based strategy for avoiding these projections, recommending a number of policy interventions aimed at building the region's resilience and development prospects. Written by influential analysts and researchers and drawing on a wide cross section of regional stakeholders and thought leaders, the study contains an assessment of the main challenges and opportunities for the region, scenario modelling of where the region could be by 2050 and a broad vision for the region with sector specific goals of how to get there.
