Stages in Learning Path

Pre-Learning

Pre-learning is the first stage where the learner/ employee realizes that they need certain skills/ knowledge to be effective at work and progress in their career.

Learning

The second stage involves the actual training process. Employees go through the training by accessing the resources and improving their knowledge.

Post-Learning

This is the last stage of the learner pathway and deals with evaluating what the employees learned during training, conducting assessments, and measuring how the learner is applying the new knowledge at work.
