Patriarchy and Socialist Revolution in China Judith Stacey, Professor of Contemporary Studies Judith Stacey, 1983

The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism S. A. Smith, 2014 Draws on documentation released since the fall of the Soviet Union to offer a global history of communism in the twentieth century

Marriage, Gender and Sex in a Contemporary Chinese Village Sun-Pong Yuen, Pui-Lam Law, Yuk-Ying Ho, Fong-Ying Yu, 2015-07-17 This book explores changing concepts of marriage and gender relationships and attitudes toward sex in a rural Chinese community over the past five decades The book is based on a study of an industrialized peasant village in Guangdong Province from 1994 to 1996 and subsequent visits from 2000 to 2002 According to the authors the rural economic reforms of the 1980s in southern China have challenged and reinforced the deep structure of Chinese familism and this has led to tensions between tradition and modernity The first section of the book explores how attitudes toward marriage and courtship have changed over the past fifty years through personal accounts of three different marriages from different generations In Part II the transition from a traditional to a modern society is discussed from the perspective of several women from different generations The third section focuses on sexual relationships and the growing sex trade in the village Part IV includes updates to the original survey and takes a look at village politics

Women Through the Lens Shuqin Cui, 2003-02-28 Women Through the Lens raises the question of how gender especially the image of woman acts as a visual and discursive sign in the creation of the nation state in twentieth century China Tracing the history of Chinese cinema through the last hundred years from the perspective of transnational feminism Shuqin Cui reveals how women have been granted a privileged visibility on screen while being denied discursive positions as subjects In addition her careful attention to the visual language system of cinema shows how woman has served as the site for the narration of nation in the context of China's changing social and political climate Placing gender and nation in a historical framework the book first shows how early productions had their roots in shadow plays a popular form of public entertainment In examining the Red Classics of socialist cinema as a mass cultural form the book shows how the utopian vision of emancipating the entire proletariat women included produced a collective ideology that declared an end to gender difference Cui then documents and discusses the cinematic spectacle of woman as essential to such widely popular films as Chen Kaige's Farewell My Concubine and Zhang Yimou's Ju Dou Finally the author brings a feminist perspective to the issues of gender and nation by turning her attention to women directors and their self representations

Governing China's Population Susan Greenhalgh, Edwin A. Winckler, 2005 Governing China's Population tells the story of political and cultural shifts from the perspectives of both regime and society

Islamic and European Expansion Michael Adas, 1993-07-20 This volume of essays makes available the essential background information and methods for effective teaching and writing on cross cultural history The contributors some of the most distinguished writers of global and comparative history chart the advances in understanding in their fields of concentration revealing both specific findings and broad patterns that have emerged

The cover image The Arrival of the Dutch at Patane from Theodore de Bry India Orientalis Part VIII Frankfurt W Richteri 1607 depicts the two key phases of global history that are covered by the essays Muslim inhabitants of the town of Patane on the Malayan peninsula warily confront a Dutch landing party whose bearing suggests that it is engaged in yet another episode in the saga of European overseas exploration and discovery The presence of the Muslims in Malaya reflects an earlier process of expansion that saw Islamic civilization spread from Spain and Morocco in the west to the Philippines in the east in the millennium between the 7th and 17th centuries The Dutch came by sea to an area on the coastal and island fringes of Asia the one zone where their warships gave them a decisive edge in this era The citizens of Patane had good reason to distrust the European intruders since the Portuguese who had preceded the Dutch had used force whenever possible to control the formerly peaceful trade in the region and often to persecute Muslim Peoples

Author note Michael Adas is Abraham Voorhees Professor of History at Rutgers University New Brunswick He is currently editor of the American Historical Association's series on Global and Comparative History and co editor of the Cambridge University Press series on Studies in Comparative World History He has published numerous articles and books including most recently with Peter Stearns and Stuart Schwartz World Civilization The Global Experience 1992 and Turbulent Passage A Global History of the Twentieth Century 1993

Modern Chinese Religion II: 1850 - 2015 (2 vols.), 2015-10-20 The last of four two volume sets on the key periods of paradigm shift in Chinese religious and cultural history this book examines the transformation of values in China since 1850 in the secular realms of economics science medicine aesthetics media and gender and in each of the major religions Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity as well as in Marxist discourse The nation and science are the values invoked most frequently with the market and democracy a distant second As in previous periods of fundamental change in Chinese history rationalization and secularization have played central roles but interiorization nearly disappears as a driving force Also in continuity with the past the state insists on an exclusive right to define and adjudicate orthodoxy Contributors include Daniel H Bays S bastien Billioud Adam Yuet Chau Na Chen Philip Clart Walter B Davis Arif Dirlik Thomas David DuBois Lizhu Fan David Faure Melissa Wei Tsing Inouye Ji Zhe Xiaofei Kang Eric I Karchmer Andr Lalibert Angela Ki Che Leung Xun Liu Richard Madsen David Ownby Ellen Oxfeld Volker Scheid Grace Yen Shen Michael Szonyi Wang Chien ch uan Xue Yu

The Cold War in Asia Zheng Yangwen, Hong Liu, Michael Szonyi, 2010-02-16 The Cold War stayed cold in Europe but it was hot in Asia Its legacy lives on in the region In none of the three dominant historiographical paradigms orthodox revisionist and post revisionist does Asia or the rest of the Third World figure with much significance What happens to these narratives if we put them to the test in Asia This volume argues that attention to what has been conventionally considered the periphery is essential to a full understanding of the global Cold War Foregrounding Asia necessarily leads to a re assessment of the dominant narratives This volume also argues for a shift in focus from diplomacy and high politics alone towards research into the culture of the Cold War era and its public diplomacy As a whole the essays contribute to enriching our understanding of what was really happening in an era that is too often understood in the catch all framework of the Cold War Akira Iriye Harvard University

Women in the Face of Change Annie Phizacklea,Hilary Pilkington,Shirin Rai,2013-10-08 The years 1989 and 1990 will probably be best remembered for the speed and breadth of political and economic change which swept through what used to be referred to as the Communist Bloc With the disintegration of this bloc there has been no shortage of western advice on how to democratize economy and politiy in these societies However little thought has been given to what this change means for the millions of women who have toiled for decades alongside men in the factories and fields as well as performing their womanly mission in the home This collection from women in Eastern and Western Europe and covering both Europe and China poses many questions about the impact of change It contributes to the debate that seeks to combat inertia and ethnocentrism within western feminism and also to the separate and the critical women s voice which is re emerging in the Soviet Union Eastern Europe and China

Law and Justice in China's New Marketplace Ronald C. Keith,2001-01-11 Law and Justice in China s New Marketplace provides the first comprehensive multidisciplinary analysis of the jurisprudence and related law underlying the contemporary Chinese transition to the socialist market economy New pluralized jurisprudence has moved beyond Marxist class analysis to consider a new balance of values relating to economic efficiency and social justice in the marketplace and yet the interior debates and perspectives concerning these values are virtually unknown in the Western scholarly literature By analysing the changing Chinese approach in law to the adjustment of social interests in the context of profound economic change Law and Justice in China s New Marketplace provides a unique reference tool It outlines the new vocabulary of market jurisprudence and law and examines new legal thinking on rights protection with reference to widely ranging and often hot internal debate over human rights property law and procedural or judicial justice

Women in China's Long Twentieth Century Gail Hershatter,2007-03-29 This indispensable guide for students of both Chinese and women s history synthesizes recent research on women in twentieth century China Written by a leading historian of China it surveys more than 650 scholarly works discussing Chinese women in the context of marriage family sexuality labor and national modernity In the process Hershatter offers keen analytic insights and judgments about the works themselves and the evolution of related academic fields The result is both a practical bibliographic tool and a thoughtful reflection on how we approach the past

Myths of Modernity Elizabeth Dore,2006-01-25 Combines Marxist and postmodern approaches to argue that patriarchy has provided the central organizing principle of Nicaraguan agrarian labor systems

Choosing Daughters Lihong Shi,2017-08-08 China s patrilineal and patriarchal tradition has encouraged a long standing preference for male heirs within families Coupled with China s birth planning policy this has led to a severe gender imbalance But a counterpattern is emerging in rural China where a noticeable proportion of young couples have willingly accepted having a single daughter They are doing so even as birth planning policies are being relaxed and having a second child and the opportunity of having a son is a new possibility Choosing Daughters explores this critical yet largely overlooked reproductive pattern emerging in China's demographic landscape Lihong Shi delves into the social economic and cultural forces behind the complex decision making process of these couples to unravel their life goals and childrearing aspirations the changing family dynamics and gender relations and the intimate parent daughter ties that have engendered this drastic transformation of reproductive choice She reveals a leading edge social force that fosters China's recent fertility decline namely pursuit of a modern family and successful childrearing achieved through having a small family Through this discussion Shi refutes the conventional understanding of a universal preference for sons and discrimination against daughters in China and counters claims of continuing resistance against China's population control program China Rights Annals James D.

Seymour, 2019-07-03 Based on four visits by the journalist author to China from 1971 to 1989 He details the horrors of the Japanese Army's seizure and capture of Nanjing in December 1937 The harrowing testimony of the Chinese victims and the Japanese perpetrators are juxtaposed with PR army announcements Transforming the Gendered Organisation of

Labour and Leisure Yuqin Huang, 2020-08-28 This book explores how the labour and leisure lives of people in contemporary rural China have been structured and transformed discussing the changing dynamics of power relations both between and within genders and in local village and family household and remote the state and market contexts It combines perspectives from sociology gender studies social history and demography to investigate the changes and continuities in the lives of women and men in Lianhe a rural village in central China examining the period from 1926 to 2013 through the lens of labour and leisure Employing methods from the field of ethnography the research focuses on the life stories of three generations including 57 women in Lianhe The book develops a double comparison analytical framework to compare the organisation of labour and leisure in the three respective generations proceeding on the one hand diachronically along the historical time that is the pre collective era collective era and reform era and synchronically along the women's life stages on the other In so doing the book links women's shifting role in changing family household forms with broader socio economic political demographic and cultural changes Moreover it employs a holistic perspective to reflect changing patterns in women's labour and leisure by disrupting the remunerated/unremunerated home labour within outside household and labour/leisure dichotomies and exploring the interrelations between them Based on this the book then identifies the determinants of rural women's labour and leisure and reveals the women's experiences of their changing identities particularly concerning their relationships with their parents in law sisters in law husbands and children Particularly highlighting the interdependence and inequality among women it also reveals their own perception of their identities and relationships and their understanding of husband/wife fairness and gender equality Lastly it demonstrates that the prevalent androcentrism in the remote world does not match the increasing husband/wife fairness in the local world and argues that this mismatch has caused the complex and paradoxical experiences and subjectivities of these women Given its scope the book is of interest to scholars students and researchers in the fields of sociology anthropology gender and development as well as a general audience looking to explore contemporary rural China      Embodying Middle Class Gender Aspirations Kailing Xie,2021-04-25 This book takes a feminist approach to analyse the lives of well educated urban Chinese women who were raised to embody the ideals of a modern Chinese nation and are largely the beneficiaries of the policy changes of the post Mao era It explores young women s gendered attitudes to and experiences of marriage reproductive choices careers and aspirations for a good life It sheds light on what keeps mainstream Chinese middle class women conforming to the current gender regime It illuminates the contradictory effects of neoliberal techniques deployed by a familial authoritarian regime on these women s striving for success in urban China and argues that paradoxically women s individualistic determination to succeed has often led them onto the path of conformity by pursuing exemplary norms which fit into the party state s agenda      Romance on a Global

Stage Nicole Constable,2003-09-18 Publisher Description      Runaway Wives, Urban Crimes, and Survival Tactics in Wartime Beijing, 1937-1949 Ma Zhao,2020-05-11 From 1937 to 1949 Beijing was in a state of crisis The combined forces of Japanese occupation civil war runaway inflation and reformist campaigns and revolutionary efforts wreaked havoc on the city s economy upset the political order and threatened the social and moral fabric as well Women especially lower class women living in Beijing s tenement neighborhoods were among those most affected by these upheavals Delving into testimonies from criminal case files Zhao Ma explores intimate accounts of lower class women s struggles with poverty deprivation and marital strife By uncovering the set of everyday tactics that women devised and utilized in their personal efforts to cope with predatory policies and crushing poverty this book reveals an urban underworld that was built on an informal economy and conducted primarily through neighborhood networks Where necessary women relied on customary practices hierarchical patterns of household authority illegitimate relationships and criminal entrepreneurship to get by Women s survival tactics embedded in and reproduced by their everyday experience opened possibilities for them to modify the male dominated city and more importantly allowed women to subtly deflect subvert and escape without leaving powerful forces such as the surveillance state reformist discourse and revolutionary politics during and beyond wartime Beijing

Cowboys And Cultivators Burton Pasternak,2019-03-11 This book is about Han Chinese who dared to cross over the Great Wall of China to make a life for themselves on the northern frontier It compares family lives the economy and gender relations among Chinese herders and farmers of Inner Mongolia      Marxism and the Chinese Experience Arif

Dirlik,Maurice Meisner,2016-09-16 These essays consider the implications for Chinese socialism of the repudiation of the Cultural Revolution and the legacy of Mao Zedong as well as the meaning of the new definition and direction Mao s successors have given socialism The themes have been selected for conceptual coherence within a socialist problematic of social change Representing anthropology art history economics history literature and politics various inquiries point in a twofold direction the meaning of socialism for China and the meaning of Chinese Socialism for socialism as a global phenomenon meaning not in some abstract sense but rather as it is constituted in the process of political ideological activity which articulates and defines social relationships within China as well as China's relationship to the world
