Mayor,Benjamin Michaudel,2015 This new MWNF Travel Book was conceived not long before the war started All texts refer to the pre war situation and are our expression of hope that Syria a land that witnessed the evolution of civilisation since the beginnings of human history may soon become a place of peace and the driving force behind a new and peaceful beginning for the entire region Bilad al Sham testifies to a thorough and strategic programme of urban reconstruction and reunification during the 12th and 13th centuries Amidst a period of fragmentation visionary leadership came with the Atabeg Nur al Din Zangi He revived Syria s cities as safe havens to restore order His most agile Kurdish general Salah al Din Saladin assumed power after he died and unified Egypt and Sham into one force capable of re conquering Jerusalem from the Crusaders The Ayyubid Empire flourished and continued the policy of patronage Though short lived this era held long lasting resonance for the region Its recognisable architectural aesthetic austere yet robust and perfected survived until modern times The Ayyubid

Era Art and Architecture in Medieval Syria describes eight thematic Itineraries including among others the cities of Damascus Bosra Homs Hama Aleppo and Raqqa Damascus Ross Burns,2007-06-11 Lavishly illustrated with beautiful photographs and original plans traces the story of this colourful significant and complex place through its physical development and provides for the first time in English a compelling and unique exploration of a The Culture of Building Howard Davis,2006-05-12 The Culture of Building describes how the built world including the vast number of buildings that are the settings for peoples everyday lives is the product of building cultures complex systems of people relationships building types techniques and habits in which design and building are anchored These cultures include builders bankers architects developers clients contractors craftspeople building inspectors planners and many others The product of these cultures which operate building after building is the built world of cities and settlements In this book Howard Davis uses historical contemporary and cross cultural examples to describe the nature and influence of these cultures He shows how building cultures reflect the general cultures in which they exist how they have changed over history how they affect the form of buildings and cities and how present building cultures which are responsible for the contemporary everyday environments may be improved Following the development of the idea of building cultures using several historical examples the book lays out a framework that puts such topics as craft and professionalism the vernacular and nonvernacular and design and construction in common frameworks Although the book ranges widely over different cultures and historical periods it emphasizes the transformations that took place in architecture and building practice from the late eighteenth century to the present Finally the book uses a series of contemporary examples that demonstrate the building culture as a living concept These examples which include built work as well as innovative processes that go beyond the work of architects alone are described as the seeds that can help the emergence of a better build world This beautiful book features over 260 color and black and white illustrations most from the authors extensive collection of slides and includes photographs prints and drawings from historical archives and contemporary architectural offices Artisans, Sufis, Shrines Hussain Ahmad Khan,2014-12-19 In nineteenth century Punjab a cultural tug of war ensued as both Sufi mystics and British officials aimed to engage the local artisans as a means of realizing their ideological ambitions When it came to influence and impact the Sufi shrines had a huge advantage over the colonial art institutions such as the Mayo School of Arts in Lahore The mystically inspired shrines built as a statement of Muslim ruling ambitions were better suited to the task of appealing to local art traditions By contrast the colonial institutions rooted in the Positivist Romanticism of the Victorian West found assimilation to be more of a challenge In questioning their relative success and failures at influencing local culture the book explores the extent to which political control translates into cultural influence Folktales Sufi shrines colonial architecture institutional education methods and museum exhibitions all provide a wealth of sources for revealing the complex dynamic between the Punjabi artisans the Sufi community and the colonial British In this unique look at a little explored aspect of India s history

Hussain Ahmad Khan explores this evidence in order to illuminate this web of cultural influences Examining the Sufi artisan relationship within the various contexts of political revolt the decline of the Mughals and the struggle of the Sufis to establish an Islamic state this book argues that Sufi shrines were initially constructed with the aim of affirming a distinct Muslim identity At the same time art institutions established by colonial officials attempted to promote eclectic architecture representing the British Indian empire as well as to revive the pre colonial traditions with which they had previously seemed out of touch This important book sheds new light on the dynamics of power and culture in the British Empire The

Emperor's House Michael Featherstone, Jean-Michel Spieser, Gülru Tanman, Ulrike Wulf-Rheidt, 2015-08-31 Evolving from a patrician domus the emperor's residence on the Palatine became the centre of the state administration Elaborate ceremonial regulated access to the imperial family creating a system of privilege which strengthened the centralised power Constantine followed the same model in his new capital under a Christian veneer The divine attributes of the imperial office were refashioned with the emperor as God's representative The palace was an imitation of heaven Following the loss of the empire in the West and the Near East the Palace in Constantinople was preserved subject to the transition from Late Antique to Mediaeval conditions until the Fourth Crusade attracting the attention of Visigothic Lombard Merovingian Carolingian Norman and Muslim rulers Renaissance princes later drew inspiration for their residences directly from ancient ruins and Roman literature but there was also contact with the Late Byzantine court Finally in the age of Absolutism the palace became again an instrument of power in vast centralised states with renewed interest in Roman and Byzantine ceremonial Spanning the broadest chronological and geographical limits of the Roman imperial tradition from the Principate to the Ottoman empire the papers in the volume treat various aspects of palace architecture art and ceremonial The Routledge

Mamluk History through Architecture Nasser Rabbat, 2010-09-30 The most enduring testament to the Mamluk Sultanate is its architecture Not only do Mamluk buildings embody one of the most outstanding medieval architectural traditions Mamluk architecture is actually a key to the social history of the period Analysing Mamluk constructions as a form of communication and documentation as well as a cultural index Mamluk History Through Architecture shows how the buildings mirror the complex and historically unique military political social and financial structures of Mamluk society With this original and authoritative study Nasser Rabbat offers an innovative approach to the history of the Mamluks through readings of the spectacular architecture of the period Drawing on examples from throughout both Egypt and Syria from the Citadel and Al Azhar Mosque of Cairo to the Mausoleum of al Zahir Baybars in Damascus Rabbat demonstrates how Mamluk architecture served to reinforce visually the spirit of the counter Crusade when the Muslim world rebounded from the setbacks of the First Crusade Both holistically and in case studies Rabbat demonstrates how history is inscribed into and reflected by a culture s artefacts This is a groundbreaking work in the study of architecture and social history in the Middle East and beyond

Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright, 2025-10-27 This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre Modern Islamic world These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins vessels and books to major constructions including mosques tombs castles dams and canal systems The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record Object based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period To demonstrate these points each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned made used adapted and exchanged The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects employing perspectives from the fields of art history archaeology numismatics ethnography and epigraphy Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction an extensive glossary a timeline and guide for further reading the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political economic social cultural religious and intellectual histories of the Islamic world
