Paul Browns Wild Visions:

Paul Brown's Wild Visions Paul Brown, 1998-01-01 Master photographer Paul T Brown's new book Paul Brown's Wild Visions brings to life the eloquence of the North American outdoors in 136 pages of breathtaking wildlife photography. The book showcases 122 photographs of wildlife: whitetailed deer, moose, brown, black, and grizzly bear, mountain lion, lynx, wolf, coyote, wolverine. Also featured are birds: eagles, hawks, waterfowl, turkey, wading birds, and songbirds. Escape in Iraq Thomas Hamill, Paul T. Brown, 2005 Church of Lies Flora Jessop, Paul T. Brown, 2009-01-20 From the Preface: My name is Flora Jessop. I've been called apostate, vigilante, and crazy bitch, and maybe I am. But some people call me a hero, and I'd like to think they're right too. If I am a hero, maybe it's because every time I can play a part in saving a child or a woman from a life of servitude and degradation, I'm saving a little piece of me too. I was one of twenty-eight children born to my dad and his three wives. Indoctrinated to believe that the outside world was evil and that I resided among the righteous, I was destined to marry a man chosen for me by the Prophet. I would then live in harmony with my sister-wives, bear many children, and obey and serve my future husband in this life and throughout eternity. But my innocence didn't last long. While still a child, I understood that the church of the righteous was nothing but a church of lies. When I was eight years old, my father sexually molested me for the first time, raping me when I was twelve. I tried to kill myself. Beaten, molested, taunted, and abused by family members alleging they only wanted to save my soul, became a daily routine. I ran from this abuse more than once in my early teens, even attempting to cross the desert on foot. My family hunted me down. I thought government agencies would provide me safety if I reported my father. Instead, police and social services colluded with the FLDS to return me to my family, and I ended up back inside polygamy, right where I started. Flora goes on from there to tell the dramatic true story of how she ultimately escaped and has been fighting against frustrating obstacles with hard-fought successes in rescuing women and children from the FLDS. It's a story you can't put down. Mississippi Outdoors, 2008 Alabama's Treasured Forests, 1997 The Wild East Margaret Lynn Brown, 2024-10-01 The Wild East explores the social, political, and environmental changes in the Great Smoky Mountains during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. This revised edition is updated with information about new research and initiatives that are restoring native plants and wildlife populations in the twenty-first century. The Guardian Index, 2003 Crude Sonia Shah, 2011-01-04 Crude is the unexpurgated story of oil from the circumstances of its birth millions of years ago to the spectacle of its rise as the indispensable ingredient of modern life. In addition to fueling our SUVs and illuminating our cities, crude oil and its byproducts fertilize our produce, pave our roads, and make plastic possible. Newborn babies, observes author Sonia Shah, slide from their mothers into petroplastic gloved hands, are swaddled in petro polyester blankets, and are hurried off to be warmed by oil-burning heaters. The modern world is drenched in oil. Crude tells how it came to be. A great human drama emerges of discovery and innovation, risk, the promise of riches, and the power of greed. Shah infuses recent twists in the story with equal drama through chronicles of colorful modern day characters from the hundreds of Nigerian women who stormed a Chevron plant to a monomaniacal scientist for whom life is the pursuit of this earthblood and its elusive secret Shah moves masterfully between scientific economic political and social analysis capturing the many sides of the indispensable mineral that we someday may have to find a way to live without

Revelation Abridged Paul Brown, 2021-06-17 This abridged commentary takes a highlighter to the whole book of Revelation like preparing for a school examination These highlighted words provide practical means for understanding the main points of God's words in improving daily life From complexity comes simplicity and elegance of the seven visions of Revelation Discover that the vision of Moses Tabernacle parallels the Lord's Prayer the vision of the Holy City parallels the Seven Days of Creation the vision of the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse matches the vision of the Four Hallelujahs the vision of the Trumpets of Justice matches the vision of the Bowls of Mercy then climatically the middle Arch Keystone vision four marks all of God's creation as innocent perfection Supporting interfaith quotes come from the Jewish Tanakh the Islamic Quran and the Christian New Testament So instead of trying to understand geo political battlefields and theological labyrinths just sit back and contemplate a few clarified phrases from each of the seven major visions See also how the shepherd's Psalm 23 aligns as an uncomplicated summary of these seven visions From this new nondenominational viewpoint the book of Revelation becomes practical an archway to bring more peace to daily experience

Film and the American Moral Vision of Nature Ronald B. Tobias, 2011-06-01 With his square bulldoggish stature signature rimless glasses and inimitable smile part grimace part snarl Theodore Roosevelt was an unforgettable figure imprinted on the American memory through photographs the chiseled face of Mount Rushmore and especially film At once a hunter explorer naturalist woodsman and rancher Roosevelt was the quintessential frontiersman a man who believed that only nature could truly test and prove the worth of man A documentary he made about his 1909 African safari embodied aggressive ideas of masculinity power racial superiority and the connection between nature and manifest destiny These ideas have since been reinforced by others Jesse Buff also Jones Paul Rainey Martin and Osa Johnson and Walt Disney Using Roosevelt as a starting point filmmaker and scholar Ronald Tobias traces the evolution of American attitudes toward nature attitudes that remain to this day remarkably conflicted complex and instilled with dreams of empire

The Creative Vision of Bessie Head Coreen Brown, 2003 This book is an exploration of the way in which Head's writing is her idiosyncratic response to her personal life Her desire to portray and yet subvert oppression political racist and sexist that she encountered in South Africa and Botswana led to a Romanticism born of her need to create an antithesis to what she perceived to be the reality around her Her eagerness to discover a haven in her adopted rural Botswana led to a Utopia of her own making a literary resolution imagined not actual A mental breakdown led to the creation of her greatest novel A Question of Power one which examines the depths of evil but allows also for the dawning of the heights of goodness The appendix contains many heretofore unpublished letters that help to explain the personal compulsion that provided for Head's creativity

ECCV 2024 Workshops Alessio Del Bue, Making Nature Whole William R. Jordan, George M. Lubick, 2011-07-26 Making Nature Whole is a seminal volume that presents an in depth history of the field of ecological restoration as it has developed in the United States over the last three decades The authors draw from both published and unpublished sources including archival materials and oral histories from early practitioners to explore the development of the field and its importance to environmental management as well as to the larger environmental movement and our understanding of the world Considering antecedents as varied as monastic gardens the Scientific Revolution and the emerging nature awareness of nineteenth century Romantics and Transcendentalists Jordan and Lubick offer unique insight into the field s philosophical and theoretical underpinnings They examine specifically the more recent history including the story of those who first attempted to recreate natural ecosystems early in the 20th century as well as those who over the past few decades have realized the value of this approach not only as a critical element in conservation but also as a context for negotiating the ever changing relationship between humans and the natural environment Making Nature Whole is a landmark contribution providing context and history regarding a distinctive form of land management and giving readers a fascinating overview of the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in understanding where ecological restoration came from or where it might be going *50+ Masterpieces you have to read before you die. African American reformers mobilized the discourses of cosmopolitanism and restraint to expand the meaning of freedom a freedom that draws on themes of abolitionism and temperance not only as principles and practices for the inner life but simultaneously as the ordering structures for forms of culture and society While investigating traditional meanings of temperance consistent with the ethos of the Protestant work ethic Enlightenment rationality or asceticism Stewart shows how temperance informed the founding of diasporic communities and civil societies to heal those who had been affected by the pursuit of excess in the transatlantic slave trade and the individualist pursuit of happiness By elucidating the concept of the black Atlantic through the lenses of literary reformers Temperance and Cosmopolitanism challenges the narrative of Atlantic history empire and European elite cosmopolitanism Its interdisciplinary approach will be of particular value to scholars of African American literature and history as well as scholars of nineteenth century cultural political and religious studies
