The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library, Jim Emmett, 1979 History of Soybeans and Soyfoods in France (1665-2015) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi, 2015-04-21 The world's most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive index 145 photographs and illustrations Free of charge in digital format on Google Books Twentieth-century French Dramatists Mary Anne O'Neil, 2006 Essays on twentieth century French playwrights who were largely influenced by non French traditions during the greatest age of French theater since the mid 1700s French drama of the twentieth century was cosmopolitan experimental and eclectic and attempted to appeal to a wider audience than in the past Dramatists came not only from Paris but from the provinces and the French states of the Caribbean as well as from Francophone countries such as Belgium

The Complete Correspondence, 1928-1940 Theodor W. Adorno, Walter Benjamin, 1999 The correspondence between Adorno and Walter Benjamin which appears here for the first time in its entirety in English translation must rank among the most significant to have come down to us from that notable age of barbarism the 20th century Each writer had met his match happily in the other This book is the story of an elective affinity Representations of Belief Elizabeth Fallaize, Ronald Elson Hallmark, Ian Pickup, 1991 , □□□□□□□□, 1975 Annual Supplement to the Catalogue of the Library of Parliament in Alphabetical and Subject Order Canada. Library of Parliament, 1923 Die Epiphanie in der französischen Literatur Rainer Zaiser, 1995 Pure Love, Pure Poetry, Pure Prayer Peter J. Gorday, 2018-09-14 By the time of his death in 1933 Henri Bremond priest and member of the elite Academie francaise had established himself in France and increasingly in England and the United States as a distinguished historian of Christian spirituality and as a Catholic modernist who helped to shake the church out of its dogmatic slumbers by embracing pure love artistic poetic expression and mystical prayer as the privileged manifestations of spiritual truth Drawing on substantial new scholarship in France that has resuscitated and reinterpreted Bremond's work for our own times and that sees Bremond as an important precursor of current trends in literary interpretation as well as spirituality Gorday surveys the entirety of Bremond's corpus of writing setting his work in its context of his personal struggles as well as the wider setting of French historical and cultural development Paratexts Gerard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gerard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function

Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory Bulletin of the Toronto Public Library Toronto Public Library, 1915 Book Bulletin , 1917 Travellers' Visions Akane Kawakami, 2005-01-01 Travellers Visions adds another perspective to ongoing debates over colonialism with an examination of the intercultural relations between France a major colonial empire for nearly three centuries and Japan a country that has remained mostly autonomous throughout its existence In this analytic history of French literary images of Japan from soon after its reopening to the West to the present day Kawakami examines the work of many of France's most revered authors including Marcel Proust Paul Claudel and Roland Barthes along with other lesser known writers and artists such as Loti and Farrer as they embarked on journeys literary and real to this exotic land Authors are discussed according to type journalists diplomats or collectors for example and the close readings are accompanied by Girard Mac's beautiful and rarely seen photographs Travellers Visions offers new clarity to current intellectual debates and will be a valuable resource to students and scholars of French literature and Asian history alike The Spanish Civil War in Literature Janet Pérez, Wendell M. Aycock, 1990 Few events have stirred the emotions and caught the imaginations of intellectuals as did the Spanish Civil War of 1936-39 The Spanish Civil War in Literature examines the diverse literatures that the war inspired a literature relating directly to the war a literature of exile arising from the forty year dictatorship of Francisco Franco and a polemical literature embracing pro Franco and Loyalist sympathies In this book specialists from a variety of fields explore these literatures within comparative and interdisciplinary frameworks They reflect upon film poetry novels painting discourse biography and propaganda The essays are grouped according to the original languages of the works they discuss French Russian English and Spanish The Gospel According to Renan Robert Daniel Priest, 2015 A new and holistic interpretation of one of the non-fiction sensations of the nineteenth century Ernest Renan's Life of Jesus this volume demonstrates how Renan's controversial work intervened in a remarkable range of debates in nineteenth century French cultural life not merely religious but also social intellectual and cultural General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
