Berg,2013-02-04 This unique study explores how Quebec s landscapes have been represented in both literature and visual art throughout the centuries from the writing of early explorers such as Cartier and Champlain to work by prominent contemporary authors and artists from the province William J Berg traces recurrent images and themes within these creations through the most significant periods in the development of a Quebecois identity that was threatened initially by the wilderness and indigenous populations and later by the dominance of British and American influences Focusing on the interplay between nature and culture in landscape representation Literature and Painting in Quebec contends that both have reflected and fashioned the meaning of French Canadian nationhood As such Literature and Painting in Quebec presents a

L'envol des signes Gilles Lapointe, Université de Montréal. Centre d'études québécoises, 1996 Paperbound Books in Print, 1984 Abstract Painting in Canada Roald Nasgaard, Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, 2008 In the tradition of the distinguished Douglas McIntyre art program this lavishly illustrated and superbly printed book is a rich readable history of abstract painting in Canada The story begins in the 1920s with the sometimes eccentric but remarkable work rooted in symbolism and theosophy of pioneers such as Kathleen Munn Bertram Brooker and Lawren Harris Two decades later the Automatistes Canada's first truly independent avant garde art movement burst onto the scene in Montreal After the Second World War the urge to abstraction spread across Canada manifesting itself in significant regional movements Vancouver painters retained a British flavour while in Toronto the Painters Eleven looked south to New York Montreal's Plasticiens launched their own razor edged interpretation of the European tradition of geometric abstraction In the sixties and seventies the Prairies were influenced by Clement Greenberg's post painterly abstraction while Halifax became a hub of conceptual art and concrete painting The book continues through the eighties and nineties during which critics largely denounced painting and concludes in the twenty first century with abstract painting alive and well again in the studios of Canada's young artists A monumental tome containing 200 color reproductions it mines a rich vein of art history ripe for international discovery

Scott, Brandtner, Eveleigh, Webber Esther Trépanier, 2022-10-15 Four artists who are today relatively or almost entirely unknown one woman and three men nevertheless played a part in the aesthetic upheavals that led to abstraction in 1940s Montreal Very active in the art milieu throughout the decade Marian Dale Scott Fritz Brandtner Henry Eveleigh and Gordon Webber captured the attention of critics of the time who employed the term abstract art to describe both non objective works and bold formal explorations that retained some reference to visible reality An examination of these artists practices reveals a remarkable openness to international contemporary art trends French German British and American Their work and its critical reception conjure a complex picture of the debates on abstraction that took place in Montreal during the 1940s so often reduced to the controversies surrounding the emergence of the Automatiste movement The artistic innovations of Paul mile Borduas and his group and the radical tone of their 1948 manifesto Refus global cemented their status as Quebec s abstract avant garde but also had the effect of eclipsing other visions of abstraction being explored during the same period This book reinstates the oeuvres of these forgotten protagonists in the narrative of abstract art illustrating how their practices encompassed a variety of themes emotion science human experience in the broadest sense but also as the Second World War unfolded the violence that marked their era Canadian Who's who Kieran Simpson,1980 Artscanada ,1982 Arts Canada ,1980 Books Out-of-print ,1986
