Swindoll, 2006-01-29 Why did it please God that His Son was brutalized Why does a loving God allow us to hurt so deeply What made Jesus death any different from thousands who died just as He did Darkness covered the earth that day The sun fled From noon until three the darkness of death hovered over the hill where the Son of God was dying As Christians we know the story well the nails in His hands the thorns on His head the gambling soldiers the taunting thieves Charles Swindoll invites us to return with me to those epochal days when our Lord walked into the awful darkness which He did not deserve only to arise into the sunlit dawn of triumph providing us a victory from which we shall never know defeat Go with him and you will find that as only he can Dr Swindoll uncovers new meaning in the Cross and the Resurrection for those who face death and darkness today His fresh perspectives on these core events of faith can help you see beyond the darkness to the new light of dawn Great Lives: Job Charles R.

Swindoll,2009-06-29 Bestselling author Charles Swindoll challenges us to take a closer look at Job's life carefully examining his response to the unexpected and painful experiences that assaulted his once peaceful and God honoring existence and we might just find that Job is a hero after all When you think of Job you may think of a hapless victim of unfair treatment His disastrous circumstances overwhelmed him his so called friends belittled him and his distraught wife discouraged and abandoned him Even God seemed to desert him At first glance Job may not seem like the traditional portrait of a hero but Job's patience strength and dedication in the face of unforeseen suffering makes his story worth knowing As Swindoll traces Job's life and legacy he challenges us to apply the lessons Job learned firsthand to our own lives including the importance of Maintaining integrity no matter what happens Accepting the challenge to change Counting on the justice of the Lord to roll down in his time instead of seeking revenge Resting contentedly in God's plan timing and purpose for you We have no way of knowing what tomorrow may bring but if it is anything like the past we know that storms will always come And when they do we have a choice to react in bitterness and anger or fall to our knees like Job and trust God even though we cannot understand why he would permit such a thing to occur
