To Punish and Protect Jeanine Pirro, Catherine Whitney, 2015-06-16 Former prosecutor Jeanine Pirro's To Punish and Protect challenges us to have the will and the courage to wage war on the predators roaming our streets and to avenge their victims The office of the district attorney is a battleground where the fight between good and evil unfolds each day We see the ugliest side of life the pain that people go through for no reason They didn't do anything They didn't ask for it

Yet here they are living their personal nightmares We cannot take away their pain or turn back time to undo the damage but we can be the avengers We can seek justice on their behalf So begins this riveting account by the former Westchester County District Attorney Jeanine Pirro as she takes us inside the violent world of modern crime fighting Before Pirro was elected DA in 1993 the job was always considered a man's domain demanding a macho toughness Pirro can be as tough as any man and yet she adds an important new dimension to the role She believes that being tough on crime means much more than just filling the jails She goes beyond her role to punish criminals to be a passionate advocate for the victims of crime In To Punish and Protect Pirro brings readers face to face with the gruesome realities of her daily battles and tells the true heartbreaking stories of the victims the slaughter of a young woman and her two children by a jealous enraged boyfriend a teenage girl forced to assume wifely duties after her father murdered her stepmother a nine year old boy chained to a radiator in a dark room and nearly starved to death as the rest of the family went about its business a gentle hardworking man shot fatally in a dispute over a parking place because he was black an eighty year old woman savagely beaten by her son and left for two days on the cold floor of her apartment a beautiful woman whose wealth and privilege could not prevent her murder at the hands of a violent husband and a group of young girls lured into a sexual nightmare by a cunning predator posing as a trustworthy youth counselor Pirro presents hard truths about the ways in which parents communities and the justice system share complicity in fostering an environment of danger to our children She describes the dark world of Internet pedophiles and hate mongers who are allowed to hide behind First Amendment protections to gain access to kids in their own bedrooms She offers a harsh judgment on parents who fail to address the deadly consequences of teen drinking and even host keg parties in their homes while alcohol continues to take young lives and destroy families Pirro delivers a bold indictment of the criminal justice system and asks whether we as a nation are truly committed to justice Increasingly she warns our laws attitudes and behaviors seem to be veering away from what we say is our moral core as a nation We say that we exalt good and punish evil yet we do the opposite We turn criminals into celebrities and view victims with suspicion If we're going to make our communities safer and our society less violent we need to do more than just pay lip service to our ideals After Taste:

Cultural Value and the Moving Image Julia Vassilieva, Constantine Verevis, 2014-01-02 In the wake of the debates over high low culture distinction spilling into the effective dismantling of the boundary that once separated them the past decade has seen the explosion of bad taste production on screen Starting with paracinema or badfilm a movement that has grown up around sleazy excessive or poorly executed B movies and has come to encompass disreputable and unworthy films this trend has been evident in various formats on television and in video art low budget and straight to TV films amateur and home movies The proliferation of trash on screen can be seen as delivering the final blow to the vexed issue of taste More importantly it prompts a reconsideration of some critical issues surrounding production circulation understanding and teaching of bad objects in the media This collection of essays written by international film and television scholars provides detailed critical analysis of the issues surrounding judgements of cultural value and taste feeling and affect cultural morals and politics research methodologies and teaching strategies in the new landscape of after taste media Addressing global and local developments from global Hollywood to Australian indigenous film and television through auteurs Sergei Eisenstein to Jerry Bruckheimer on to examples such as Twilight to Sukiyaiki Western Django the essays in this book offer a range of critical tools for understanding the recent shifts affecting cultural aesthetic and political value of the moving image This book was originally published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media Cultural Studies
