Contemporary Art Theo Reeves-Everson, 2020-11-26 What happens when the shock of artistic transgression wears off when scandal dissipates when outrage becomes a tired routine In this original new book Theo Reeves-Everson argues that transgressive art no longer succeeds on its own terms in societies where language prohibition and morality have become increasingly malleable This compels us to rethink the relationship between contemporary art and ethics and focus our attention on the potential of artworks to propose new values rather than simply challenge pre-existing moral codes Assembling a novel theoretical framework from the writings of Félix Guattari Jacques Lacan and others Ethics of Contemporary Art narrates a journey away from transgression towards a new critical paradigm for the relationship between ethics and aesthetics that places questions of subjectivity centre stage Along the way artworks by Kader Attia Artur Zmijewski Dora García and others serve as springboards launching discussions of the varied pathways along which a renewed ethics of contemporary art might develop      The Rochester Directory ,1874      Why is that Art? Terry Barrett,2017 Why is that art Why is it in an art museum Who says it s art Why is it good Why Is That Art Third Edition introduces students to theories of art through the presentation of contemporary works that include abstract and representational painting animated film monumental sculpture performance art photographs relational art and video installations Ideal for courses in aesthetics art theory art criticism and the philosophy of art this unique book provides students with a newfound appreciation for contemporary art scholarship and reasoned argumentation      Minor Photography Mieke Bleyen,2012 The first book to apply the concept of the minor to the theory of photography The notion of the minor developed by Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari in Kafka Towards a minor literature 1975 is introduced and connected applied here for the very first time to the field of photography theory Deleuze and Guattari defined minor literature in terms of deterritorialization politicization and collectivization By transferring the minor to the medium of photography this book enlarges the idea of the minor and opens it up to all kinds of mutations in the process The essays gathered in this book discuss the ways in which photography can make the dominant codes of representation stammer and how it can produce new effects and address people yet to come The authors consider the minor as a valuable tool to help photography research move beyond or in between binary and hierarchized ways of thinking of high and low art for example or centre and periphery As such it aims to contribute to a rethinking of photography as multiplicity and variation Consequently the term is connected with both marginal and canonical photographic practices covering photographers as different as Miroslav Tichý Paul McCarthy Tacita Dean Dan Graham and Paul Noug After developing a theory of the minor this book explores how the operations of the minor can be found in major art practices It closes by tackling the question of photography as variation in case studies of belated forms of surrealist photography This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content

Art History Versus Aesthetics James Elkins,2012-11-12 In this unprecedented collection over twenty of the world s most prominent thinkers on the subject including Arthur Danto Stephen Melville Wendy Steiner Alexander Nehamas and Jay Bernstein ponder the disconnect between these two disciplines The volume has a radically innovative structure it begins with introductions and centres on an animated conversation among ten historians and aestheticians That conversation was then sent to twenty scholars for commentary and their responses are very diverse some are informal letters and others full essays with footnotes Some think they have the answer in hand and others raise yet more questions The volume ends with two synoptic essays one by a prominent aesthetician and the other by a literary critic This stimulating inaugural volume in the Routledge The Art Seminar series presents not one but many answers to the question Does philosophy have anything to say to art history      All Helen's Children ,      Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity Jaye Early,2025-01-23 This is the first book of its kind to examine the development of the confessional subject in video art and demonstrate how it can provide a vital platform for navigating the politics of self subjectivity and resistance in society In doing so it reframes video art the most ubiquitous and yet most understudied art form of recent decades as an urgent socio political tool that is increasingly popular among contemporary artists as a means of exploring a broad range of social issues from politics and identity to the body and technologies of self representation Analysing a diverse selection of case studies from the 1960s up to the present day covering the work of Yoko Ono Gillian Wearing Ryan Trecartin Tracey Emin Anatasia Klose and Heath Franco among others the book brings together theory and practice to look afresh at contemporary video art through a Foucauldian lens It also brings the analysis of video art up to date by showing how social media and digital self representation has informed and further politicized time based art practices Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity shows how forms of confessional discourse not only play an important function in the construction of subjectivity but also open spaces for personal resistance and agency within contemporary video art As a result it offers researchers of contemporary art practice and media and cultural studies an updated framework through which to view this constantly evolving genre and a deeper understanding of wider contemporary video practices
