Wilkes,2014-01-21 This book uses the contradictions fractures and coincidences of a twentieth century rural landscape to explore new methods of writing place beyond new nature writing In doing so it opens up new ways of reading modernist artists and writers such as Vanessa Bell Mary Butts and Paul Nash Catalog of the Library of the Museum of Modern Art: Col Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1976 Documents and Images for the Study of Paul Neil Elliott,Mark Reasoner,2010-11-01 Documents and Images for the Study of Paul gathers representative texts illustrating Jewish practices Greco Roman moral exhortation biblical interpretation Roman ideology apocalyptic visions epistolary conventions and much more to illustrate the complex cultural environment in which Paul carried out his apostolic work and the manifold ways in which his legacy was reshaped in early Christianity Brief insightful introductions orient the reader to how these sources might play a role in different contemporary interpretations of Paul's life and thought Lavishly illustrated with more than one hundred black and white photographs charts a map and timeline of Paul's world this sourcebook is a welcome resource for courses on Paul and his letters Surrealism in Britain Michael Remy,2019-09-10 This book was originally published in 1999 and is the first comprehensive study of the British surrealist movement and its achievements Lavishly illustrated the book provides a year by year narrative of the development of surrealism among artists writers critics and theorists in Britain Surrealism was imported into Britain from France by pioneering little magazines The 1936 International Surrealist Exhibition in London put together by Herbert Read and Roland Penrose marked the first attempt to introduce the concept to a wider public Relations with the Soviet Union the Spanish Civil War and World War Two fractured the nascent movement as writers and artists worked out their individual responses and struggled to earn a living in wartime The book follows the story right through to the present day Michael Remy draws on 20 years of studying British surrealism to provide this authoritative and biographically rich account a major contribution to the understanding of the achievements of the artists and writers involved and their allegiance to this key twentieth century movement Photography Ltd. Staff Clio Press,1982 British Art in the Nuclear Age Catherine Jolivet,2017-07-05 Rooted in the study of objects British Art in the Nuclear Age addresses the role of art and visual culture in discourses surrounding nuclear science and technology atomic power and nuclear warfare in Cold War Britain Examining both the fears and hopes for the future that attended the advances of the nuclear age nine original essays explore the contributions of British born and gr rtists in the areas of sculpture textile and applied design painting drawing photo journalism and exhibition display Artists discussed include Francis Bacon John Bratby Lynn Chadwick Prunella Clough Naum Gabo Barbara Hepworth Peter Lanyon Henry Moore Eduardo Paolozzi Peter Laszlo Peri Isabel Rawsthorne Alan Reynolds Colin Self Graham Sutherland Feliks Topolski and John Tunnard Also under discussion is new archival material from Picture Post magazine and the Festival of Britain Far from insular in its concerns this volume draws upon cross cultural dialogues between British and European artists and the relationship between Britain and America to engage with an interdisciplinary art history that will also prove useful to students and researchers in a variety of fields including modern European history political science the history of design anthropology and media studies British Archives Janet Foster,Julia Sheppard,1989-06-18 This guide contains over 1000 entries of centres holding archive and manuscript collections in the UK includes many newly established and specialist archives and their details This edition includes over 400 additional entries new indexes and cross references Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Shadow Sites Kitty Hauser,2007-03-29 At certain times of the day at sunrise and sunset the outlines of prehistoric fields barrows and hill forts in the British landscape may be thrown into relief Such shadow sites best seen from above and captured by an airborne camera are both examples of and metaphors for a particular way of seeing the landscape. At a time of rapid modernisation and urbanisation in mid twentieth century Britain an archaeological vision of the British landscape reassured and enchanted a number of writers, artists, photographers and film makers. From John Piper, Eric Ravilious and Shell guide books to photographs of bomb damage, aerial archaeology and The Wizard of Oz, Kitty Hauser delves into evocative interpretations of the landscape and looks at the affinities between photography as a medium to capture traces of the past as well as their absence. Mary Butts and British Neo-Romanticism Andrew Radford, 2014-08-28. Mary Butts was an important figure in inter war modernist circles and one who reviewed and associated with some of the major literary figures of the era from T S Eliot to Gertrude Stein. Despite her importance and the varied nature of her writing she has been a neglected figure in modernist scholarship. Providing a new analysis of the interwar literary period, Mary Butts and British Neo Romanticism revisits her work vividly, experimental writings spanning memoir, poetry, polemic and fiction through the lens of mid 20th century British neo Romanticism. The book argues that behind Butts's eco feminist writings lies an intricate political and philosophical commentary. Catalog of the Library of the Museum of Modern Art: Man Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1976. Paul Nash, Paintings and Watercolours Paul Nash, Tate Gallery, 1975. Art, Design, Photo, 1975. British Archives J. Foster, J. Sheppard, 2016-04-30. British Archives is the foremost reference guide to archive resources in the UK. Since publication of the first edition more than ten years ago it has established itself as an indispensable reference source for everyone who needs rapid access to archives and archive repositories in this country. Over 1200 entries provide detailed information on the nature and extent of the collection as well as the organization holding it. A typical entry includes name of repository, parent organization, address, telephone, fax, email and website number, for enquiries, days and hours of opening, access restrictions, acquisitions policy, archives of organization, major collections, non manuscript material, finding aids, facilities, conservation, publications. New to this edition: email and web address, expanded bibliography, consolidated repository and collections index. Robert Adams, 1917-1984 Alastair Ian Grieve, Robert Adams, Tate Gallery, 1992.
