Paul Rotterdam Paul Rotterdam, 1976 The New Tenement Florian Urban, 2017-10-12 This book examines new tenements dense medium rise multi storey residences that have been the backbone of European inner city regeneration since the 1970s and came with a new positive view on urban living Focusing principally on Berlin Copenhagen Glasgow Rotterdam and Vienna it relates architectural design to an evolving intellectual framework that mixed anti modernist criticism with nostalgic images and strategic goals and absorbed ideas about the city as a generator of creativity locale of democratic debate and object of personal identification This book analyses new tenements in the context of the post functionalist city and its mixed use neighbourhoods redeveloped industrial sites and regenerated waterfronts It demonstrates that these buildings are both generators and outcome of an urban environment characterised by information exchange rather than industrial production individual expression rather than mass culture visible history rather than comprehensive renewal and conspicuous difference rather than egalitarianism It also shows that new tenements evolved under a welfare state that all over Europe has come under pressure but still to a certain degree balances and controls heterogeneity and economic disparities Paul Rotterdam , 1975 New York Supreme Court Appellate Division Third Department , Paul Rotterdam Paul Rotterdam, 1978 Drug & Chemical Markets , 1926 Paper Trade Journal , 1924 A Contribution to the Bibliography of the History of the United States Navy Agnes C. Doyle, 1906 The Soul in the Axiosphere from an Intercultural Perspective, Volume Two Joanna Jurewicz, Ewa Masłowska, Dorota Pazio-Włazłowska, 2020-05-04 This volume gathers together a broad spectrum of evaluations of the soul from different perspectives including artistic from literature and the arts mystic and theological reflections on spirituality from the Christian religion as well as from the Orient and Ancient Egypt The contributions in this book will afford the reader a wider perspective on the concept of the soul in its ethical emotional and theological dimensions in both European and Non European cultures and languages and in artistic philosophical and religious texts The Chamber of Commerce Journal , 1917 Married to Stefan Zweig Friderike Zweig, 2019-08-15 An essential companion piece to Stefan Zweig s classic The World of Yesterday this memoir addresses many of the questions that this internationally celebrated author raised but did not answer A professional journalist and researcher in her own right who first encountered Zweig in 1908 Friderike threads her story between what Zweig called the Scylla of exaggerated candor and the Charybdis of self love She paints a detailed portrait of her famous husband from his birth into a wealthy Jewish family in late 19th century Vienna to his suicide with his second wife in Brazil in 1942 Married to Stefan Zweig first published in 1946 under the title Stefan Zweig provides a thorough overview of the writer s poems plays stories biographies essays and articles his work habits and his relations with editors publishers friends mentors and protégés Friderike also illuminates facets of the tumultuous context of political and social upheaval in which Zweig worked during his years in Salzburg and London Married to Stefan Zweig is among the very small number of women's memoirs from 20th century Central Europe and an unusual portrait of a marriage anywhere anytime The Urban Connection Luuk Boelens, 2009 The urban connection develops a promising actor relational approach to urban planning With respect to the usual governmental planning it is focused outside in instead of inside out It derives its leitmotif from the actual debate about state controlled versus neo liberal planning and reflects on innovative post structuralist scholars in the field of planning economics social geography and governance It then takes its own position in that debate reflecting on actor oriented experiments in planning practices These experiments deal with the daily planning practice with a pro active and operational attitude contrary to the usual retrospective case studies Therefore it results in concrete suggestions on how to develop a more robust planning approach in an ongoing globalising and fragmenting world "Rubens, Velázquez, and the King of Spain " Larry Silver, 2017-07-05 This study provides a new analysis of the pictorial ensemble of the Torre de la Parada the hunting lodge of King Philip IV of Spain Created in the late 1630s by a group of artists led by Peter Paul Rubens this cycle of mythological imagery and hunting scenes was completed by Diego Velázquez Despite the lack of a written program surviving works provide eloquent testimony of several basic themes that embody Neostoic ideals of self restraint and prudent governance While Rubens set the moral tone through his serio comic Ovidian narratives Velázquez added an important grace note with his portraits of ancient philosophers and royals and fools of the court This study is the first to consider in depth their joint artistic contributions and shared ambition Through analysis of individual works the authors situate these pictorial inventions within broader intellectual currents in both Spanish Flanders and Spain especially in the advice literature and drama presented to the Spanish king Moreover they point to the lasting resonance of Torre de la Parada for Velázquez especially within his late masterworks Las Meninas and Las Hilanderas Ultimately this study illuminates the dialogical nature of this ensemble in which Rubens and Velázquez offer a set of complementary views on subjects ranging from the nature of classical gods to the role of art as a mirror of the prince
