Unwriting Maya Literature Paul M. Worley, Rita M. Palacios, 2019-05-07 Unwriting Maya Literature provides an important decolonial framework for reading Maya texts that builds on the work of Maya authors and intellectuals such as Q'anjob'al Gaspar Pedro González and Kaqchikel Irma Otzoy Paul M. Worley and Rita M. Palacios privilege the Maya category ts'ib over constructions of the literary in order to reveal how Maya peoples themselves conceive of artistic creation This offers a decolonial departure from theoretical approaches that remain situated within alphabetic Maya linguistic and literary creation As ts'ib refers to a broad range of artistic production from painted codices and textiles to works composed in Latin script as well as plastic arts the authors argue that texts by contemporary Maya writers must be read as dialoguing with a multimodal Indigenous understanding of text In other words ts'ib is an alternative to understanding writing that does not stand in opposition to but rather fully encompasses alphabetic writing placing it alongside and in dialogue with a number of other forms of recorded knowledge This shift in focus allows for a critical reexamination of the role that weaving and bodily performance play in these literatures as well as for a nuanced understanding of how Maya writers articulate decolonial Maya aesthetics in their works Unwriting Maya Literature places contemporary Maya literatures within a context that is situated in Indigenous ways of knowing and being Through ts'ib the authors propose an alternative to traditional analysis of Maya cultural production that allows critics students and admirers to respectfully interact with the texts and their authors Unwriting Maya Literature offers critical praxis for understanding Mesoamerican works that encompass non Western ways of reading and creating texts

Usted sabe quién Rodrigo Fluxá, El 29 de junio de 2010 la tranquila localidad de Puerto Varas fue sacudida por la desaparición de una mujer de 42 años que parecía tener una vida perfecta 42 días después cuando el cuerpo de Viviana Haeger fue encontrado en el entretecho de su propia casa la atención del país se centró en una historia policial donde el principal sospechoso pero no el único parecía ser el marido de la víctima Jaime Anguita Pasarán siete años para que la justicia dictara su veredicto El periodista Rodrigo Fluxá se instaló una temporada en Puerto Varas coincidiendo con el juicio en contra de Anguita y desde allí en primera persona no sólo reconstruye y deconstruye el caso más que eso recorre diferentes escenarios y relatos para demostrar que la verdad puede desafiar a la lógica racional cuando un sistema judicial comienza a mostrar sus grietas Usted sabe quien notas desde el juicio Haeger
