On the High Line Annik LaFarge, 2024-05-07 The most comprehensive up to date and acclaimed guide to the High Line by the leading expert on the history of the park now in a fully revised edition Built atop a former freight railroad the park in the sky is regularly cited as one of the premiere examples of adaptive reuse and quickly became one of New York s most popular destinations attracting more than 8 million visitors a year This updated Third Edition of On the High Line published to coincide with the fifteenth anniversary of the park s opening remains the definitive guide to the park that transformed an entire neighborhood and became an inspiration to cities around the globe In short entries organized by roughly two city block sections the guide provides rich details about everything in view on both sides of the park Illustrated with more than 110 black plants and horticulture and important industries and technological innovations that developed in the neighborhoods the park traverses from book publishing and food distribution to the introduction of cold storage and the development of radar the elevator and talking movies Updated to include newly opened sections of the park this edition also features a new conversation pertaining to the more controversial side of the High Line s story and how it became a poster child for the most grievous manifestations of gentrification and inequity in public spaces Author Annik LaFarge provides a frank discussion on how the park's leadership created a platform for discussing these issues and for advising other projects on how to work more inclusively and from a social justice and equity perspective On the High Line serves as an educated travel companion someone invisibly perched on a visitor's shoulder who can answer every question including what was here before moving back in time through the early 20th century the Industrial Revolution and the colonial and pre-European times when this stretch of what we call Manhattan was home to the Lenape people and much of it was covered by the waters of the Hudson River A companion website with more than 650 photos historic contemporary rooftop and aerial can be viewed at HighLineBook.com

Black Writers, White Publishers John Kevin Young, 2006 Jean Toomer's Cane was advertised as a book about Negroes by a Negro despite his request not to promote the book along such racial lines Nella Larsen switched the title of her second novel from Nig to Passing because an editor felt the original title might be too inflammatory In order to publish his first novel as a Book of the Month Club main selection Richard Wright deleted a scene in Native Son depicting Bigger Thomas masturbating Toni Morrison changed the last word of Beloved at her editor's request and switched the title of Paradise from War to allay her publisher's marketing concerns Although many editors place demands on their authors these examples invite special scholarly attention given the power imbalance between white editors and publishers and African American authors

Black Writers White Publishers Marketplace Politics in Twentieth Century African American Literature examines the complex negotiations behind the production of African American literature In chapters on Larsen's Passing Ishmael Reed's Mumbo Jumbo Gwendolyn Brooks's Children Coming Home Morrison's Oprah's Book Club selections and Ralph Ellison's Juneteenth John K Young presents the first book length application of editorial theory to African American literature Focusing on the manuscripts drafts book covers colophons and advertisements that trace book production Young expands upon the concept of socialized authorship and demonstrates how the study of publishing history and practice and African American literary criticism enrich each other John K Young is an associate professor of English at Marshall University His work has appeared in journals such as College English African American Review and Critique
