Opinion United States. Court of Appeals (9th Circuit),1976-05      Costs and Performance of Irrigation Projects Arlene B. Inocencio,International Water Management Institute,Future Harvest (Program),2007 High irrigation investment costs together with declining world prices for food and the failures of a number of high profile past irrigation projects are the main reasons for the reluctance of development agencies and governments in sub Saharan Africa to invest more resources in irrigation This study aims to systematically establish whether costs of irrigation projects in sub Saharan Africa are truly high determine the factors which influence costs and performance of irrigation projects and recommend cost reducing and performance enhancing options to make irrigation investments in the region more attractive It analyzes 314 irrigation projects implemented from 1967 to 2003 in 50 countries in Africa Asia and Latin America funded by the World Bank African Development Bank and the International Fund for Agricultural Development      Opportunities for private sector participation in agricultural water development and management F. W. T. Penning de Vries,H. Sally,A. Inocencio,2005 This study examines ways to increase food security reduce poverty and achieve economic growth in sub Saharan Africa with water through increased participation of the private sector and publicprivatepartnerships This report is a summary of the findings from a review of the literature and critical analysis thereof The private sector includes all farmers farm households and agriculture based micro small and medium enterprises MSMEs That is all entities involved in crop livestock and fish production and marketing in post harvest activities and food processing and in supply chains for the goods services and information used in the process The study examines different types of agricultural water development and management These include smallholder subsistence farming cultivation of profit oriented high value crops and peri urban agriculture as well as successful examples of private sector involvement in various functions or processes including planning design construction operations and maintenance The spotlight on water does not imply that other factors such as off farm employment market development and education are unimportant      All Can Be Saved Stuart B. Schwartz,2008-10-01 It would seem unlikely that one could discover tolerant religious attitudes in Spain Portugal and the New World colonies during the era of the Inquisition when enforcement of Catholic orthodoxy was widespread and brutal Yet this groundbreaking book does exactly that Drawing on an enormous body of historical evidence including records of the Inquisition itself the historian Stuart Schwartz investigates the idea of religious tolerance and its evolution in the Hispanic world from 1500 to 1820 Focusing on the attitudes and beliefs of common people rather than those of intellectual elites the author finds that no small segment of the population believed in freedom of conscience and rejected the exclusive validity of the Church The book explores various sources of tolerant attitudes the challenges that the New World presented to religious orthodoxy the complex relations between popular and learned culture and many related topics The volume concludes with a discussion of the relativist ideas that were taking hold elsewhere in Europe during this era      Writers and Their Notebooks Diana M. Raab,2022-04-13 Personal reflections on the vital role of the notebook in creative writing from Dorianne Laux Sue Grafton

John Dufresne Kyoko Mori and more This collection of essays by established professional writers explores how their notebooks serve as their studios and workshops places to collect to play and to make new discoveries with language passions and curiosities For these diverse writers the journal also serves as an ideal forum to develop their writing voice whether crafting fiction nonfiction or poetry Some include sample journal entries that have since developed into published pieces Through their individual approaches to keeping a notebook the contributors offer valuable advice personal recollections and a hearty endorsement of the value of using notebooks to document develop and nurture a writer s creative spark

Innovative approaches to agricultural water use for improving food security in Sub- Saharan Africa A. Inocencio,H. Sally,D. J. Merrey,2003 This paper provides an overview of innovative options for developing and using water for food production in sub Saharan Africa SSA in light of the growing scarcity and competition for water resources These options include rainwater harvesting selective development of wetlands for agriculture exploitation of shallow groundwater and recycling urban waste The options are largely based on low cost individualized technologies which lend themselves to private sector promotion Water demand management approaches are also discussed
